What Happened to My Church?

By Jan Markell

Church issues are the most frequent inquiry I get here at Olive Tree Ministries. Other leaders tell me the same. What has happened in the last 30-40 years? Many people visit church after church only to walk away disheartened. Others are lifetime members of a church and have seen changes that left it unrecognizable—spiritually speaking.

At first, members and attendees wonder if they are being a bit too judgmental, but the sad reality eventually sinks in that something has gone terribly wrong.

My background is in a fundamental church in Minneapolis that delivered verse-by-verse messages and had frequent prophecy conferences. Try to find that today! You will find a few but they are few and far between. This same church warned me about a coming apostasy back in the 1970s, but who knew it would get so bad starting somewhere in the 1990s? Nothing could have prepared me.

First it was music that became the great divider. Nobody minds some guitars and a bass, but into the second decade of the 21st Century, ear plugs are handed out as one enters the church sanctuary.

Some churches open with a secular song, dim the lights, add some smoky fog, and have an atmosphere similar to the local bar. All of this is to enhance choruses that will be sung two-dozen times by hypnotized church members. I would learn that it is to attract “seekers”—a 21st Century term. Bill Hybels admitted that he came up with the term but confessed it didn’t work well in his church!

Organs and pianos were tossed out 25 years ago because they did not promote “church growth.” The over-age 55 crowd was on their own. Some churches threw them a bone with an 8 a.m. service for those with gray heads. That trend began “the great divide” between generations.

Someone made a conscious decision that we should have a “new way of doing church”, although many members and attendees agreed there was nothing wrong with old ways of doing church. Terms began being used like “purpose-driven,” “seeker-sensitive,” “church-growth movement,” “postmodernism,” “Emergent,” and more.

People started to hear about love, unity and tolerance. We must be known for what we agree on, not what we disagree on. Everything and everyone must be accepted. Aberrations must be accepted. Sin must be accepted. People loved having their ears tickled. They would be encouraged to “feel good” and have their self-esteem built up. Sound doctrine was being set aside.

The saving of souls was being set aside for the entertainment factor and social justice causes. It seemed that many in the church no longer cared that so many were on their way to hell! What an offensive, intolerant thought. But clearly, sound doctrine will separate and divide so we must tread lightly in that area.

Relevant issues have vanished. Pulpits have become afraid to talk about voting biblical values. Pastors quit speaking in favor of traditional marriage and against abortion. It seemed like an “eleventh commandment” came into the church: Thou shalt not offend. Taking a stand was clearly over.

When it came to issues like Bible prophecy, the silence became deafening! People were told this was “divisive” although rock music in the church apparently was not! Millions are going to be left behind at the Rapture of the Church, but there are no warnings about this going out from hardly any church. Instead, pulpits are dispensing Osteen-type messages that talk about “your best life now” on this broken, corrupt planet.

This is just a short explanation as to why e-mails and letters pour into this ministry and others asking about how they might find a healthy, relevant church in their neighborhood.

In 2017, my friend Terry James invited me to submit a chapter in his proposed book titled “Deceivers: Exposing Evil Seducers & Their Last Days Deception.” I had been doing Christian radio across the country for many years and as I researched programs, I was reminded daily that there had been a straying from sound doctrine.

I was confronted with the fact that I had two choices: I could overlook this trend or expose it. I took the warning to watchmen in Ezekiel 33 very seriously, and I determined to confront the false teaching head-on and tell the truth about it. I did not want the blood on my hands! I knew this would cost me listeners and friends. I would soon find out that certain radio stations would marginalize me and even ban me for the naming of names.

Was this too high of a price to pay? I had to seriously ponder that and count the cost. Could I stick with my plan? It’s a big, lonely world. We need all the support we can get. My plan would not win friends -- but it might save some people from making lifelong theological mistakes by revealing who and what could be trusted and not trusted.

I began my research by tracing the history of false doctrine and reckless church movements going back to the early 1900s to the present. From mystical madness, such as so-called Christian Yoga, to the experiential of the New Apostolic Reformation, wolves were prowling around the flock.

At the same time, I saw that discernment was going over a cliff as books like "The Shack" and "Jesus Calling" were embraced as much as the Bible.

An entire movement sprang up around Todd Bentley, who kicked sick people with his biker boot to heal them, and this was celebrated.

Evangelical organizations like the NAE embraced global warming and called for America to destroy all her nukes. What does this have to do with the gospel?

Ecumenism soared and Protestants began embracing Catholicism. Kenneth Copeland announced that the Reformation was over.

I observed something called the "laughing revival" and I concluded that it wasn't so funny.

I could go on and on. You can see that the odds of you having a healthy, well-balanced church are slim but they are out there! If you have one, thank God for it daily. If you don't,

Understanding the Times 2018 Conference

Presented by Jan Markell and Olive Tree Ministries

On Saturday, September 29, almost 4,000 people gathered from 55 states, Canadian Provinces or foreign countries. They came to Eden Prairie, Minnesota, just outside of Minneapolis, to enjoy our speakers and to fellowship with like-minded believers who are looking up. We offer complete sets of CDs and DVDs of this event.

Conference DVDs

We encourage you to get the conference DVDs which are just $5 more than the CDs. Two of our speakers used extensive video in their PowerPoint. These will be missed in the CDs, although we do offer them as well. Both CDs and DVDs contain speaker interviews with Jan Markell as a bonus.

Available on YouTube

If you cannot afford these products, the entire event is available on our YouTube channel found at Jan Markell. Go to "Understanding the Times 2018." Almost 400,000 people have viewed the various presentations online.

Save The Date For 2019:

We hope to meet again Saturday, September 21, 2019. The location is the same but further details are not yet available. Watch our website, newsletters, and catch radio announcements.

Pastor J.D. Farag from Calvary Chapel, Kaneohe, Hawaii, was a favorite of the day. He also does weekly prophecy updates on YouTube.

Amir Tsarfati is a yearly draw as he teaches eschatology from the land of Bible prophecy—Israel, where he resides. Amir travels the world with truths from the Bible from a last days’ perspective.

Pastor Jack Hibbs comes from Calvary Chapel, Chino Hills, California and is known for his online “Real Life with Jack Hibbs” presentations, also heard on Christian radio.

Pastor Billy Crone is one of the most diverse speakers in the church today. He comes from Sunrise Bible Church in Las Vegas and is best known for his productions with “Get A Life Media” online.

Eric Barger heads “Take a Stand! Ministries” and travels North America with seminars helping people understand the times and contend for the faith.

Conference Testimonies:

“I was so blessed to be there and I will be back. I have felt so alone for so long. No one wants to hear that the King is coming. I can never thank you and your staff enough.”
—Gary

“Thank you so very much for the streaming. We watched all day from Virginia.”—Melissa know that you are not alone. Millions visit nearly every potential church in town and walk away perplexed and heart broken. Are they looking for perfection?

A few may be but most are not.

They just know today's church would most likely not be recognized by their parents or grandparents. Jesus said the gates of hell would not prevail against the church (Matt. 16:18). Having said that, the gates of hell are trying like crazy to penetrate the church, change it, change its message, change its purpose, distort the gospel, and wear down the saints — pastors included.

Christ died for the Church and we cannot give up on it! A heavenly endless church service awaits us in Eternity with a celestial choir and orchestra. The preaching will also be out of this world! We'll all be one denomination. The bickering will be over with. We won't insist on our own way. We'll finally be in one accord.

Our Readers and Listeners Respond

Finding your program in Seattle was a God-send. I now listen on the iPad. I feel alone. If I mention prophecy to anyone, people gasp. I find no depth in Christian conversation. I thank God for you, Jack Hibbs, Amir, and J.D. Farag.—Lois, WA

Jan, my Covenant Church in International Falls, MN had 35 people attend the streaming of your September 29 conference. Many never would have heard otherwise! Keep on encouraging the remnant and helping us stand firm in the faith.—Peggy, MN

Watching your conference here in the Netherlands was unique as I felt like I had one big worldwide family instead of being so alone!—Rebecca, e-mail

Jan, we listen to your program online here in the U.K. and watched your conference. There are no Bible-believing churches in our area. Thankfully, we have been having house-church meetings for 18 years.—John, e-mail

Jan, I just want to thank you and encourage you as you have been such a great help. Your radio program is always relevant and helpful and I am so glad to have found a non-compromising Christian ministry.—Daphne, e-mail

Can We Still Believe in the Rapture?

By Jan Markell

Recently ministry associates Dr. Ed Hindson and Dr. Mark Hitchcock came out with a book this ministry carries. It is titled, "Can We Still Believe in the Rapture?" I had been asking the question about the relevance of the Rapture in the church today because what I have been observing is the sentiment, come, Lord Jesus, but not too soon.

I came to this conclusion after watching the mood in the church today that seemed to be to live for today, enjoy life, avoid negative topics, seek pleasure, and focus on self. In other words, to obtain your best life now! Talk of the last days is perceived as fringy and even doom and gloom. I was growing more and more troubled that the glorious news that the King is coming had, over time, become a downer. How is it possible that the news of being removed from a cursed planet and establishing eternal life with God the Father was suddenly negative?

I even made a DVD over a year ago titled, "How the Blessed Hope Became the Blasted Hope: The Attack on Bible Prophecy." In that production, I reviewed how I thought this had transpired. Some popular Bible teachers who were not friendly to this message had been speaking out against it including Hank Hanegraaff, Pastor Rick Warren, Frank Schaeffer, Lynne Hybels, and many more. Others such as Dr. R.C. Sproul were promoting the aberration known as Preterism: All prophecy is history—it all happened in 70 A.D. Who knew? It has already happened and we missed it!

The 21st Century obsession with social justice has crowded out eschatology. The two just don't go together! Social justice says "fix society today." Eschatology says, "Our only hope is the future." Social justice says, "Let's improve our world." Eschatology says, "This world is not our home."

I saw a year-old issue of the magazine, "Israel, My Glory", produced by Friends of Israel and their cover story was "Whatever Happened to the Rapture?" Here was more proof that I wasn't alone in my ponderings!

The lead article stated, "Christians who believe in the Rapture are often portrayed as escapists who are out of touch with reality and ready to leave this world and all its problems

behind. Consequently, this once-beloved teaching has eroded.”

They continue, “Some Christians don’t want to associate with a belief that is mocked publicly or abused by date-setters, so they distance themselves from it; and distancing appears more in the pulpit than in the pew.”

They are so right! Ask most pastors today if they could teach on Daniel, Revelation, Matthew 24, I Thessalonians 4, and other familiar end-time passages, and they will throw up their hands and state:

- I lack the seminary training.
- It’s too divisive.
- How do we know which theology is correct?
- That topic has fringe looks like Harold Camping.
- It will drive our members away as it is perceived as too frightening.

- Our long-term building program will be marginalized!

Sure, II Peter 3 predicts all of this but I am not convinced that is a great comfort, and certainly not to the hundreds and even thousands who have written me over time saying they feel like an out-of-place freak among family and friends because this is the topic they love. And finding like-minded fellowship has become nearly impossible.

Prophecy-loving believers find themselves isolated, ridiculed, marginalized, and feeling like nobody else believes like they do! But those who are like-minded may span cities, countries and continents. There will be few in their church or family. These remnant believers will drive or fly many miles to gather at the last few remaining prophecy preaching conferences around the world. There they experience a “family reunion!”

Can We Still Believe in the Rapture?

In the Hitchcock and Hindson book they write, “Why the divide on the Rapture? Why has there been such animosity among some believers regarding Christ’s coming?”

“Some of the most vocal objections to the idea of the Rapture have come from those who lack a clear, exegetically-based understanding of it in the first place. They become easily confused by statements like:

- The word Rapture is not in the Bible.
- Christians have always suffered tribulation.
- No one believed in a pre-Tribulation Rapture before 1830.
- The Bible doesn’t teach two second comings or two last trumpets.”

I have to ask if a teacher you follow is ignoring this topic, could they be off-base in other areas of theology? How can you marginalize the one-third of the Bible that deals with things to come and make sense of the rest of the Bible? Isn’t this a serious red flag as to the overall soundness of a pastor or teacher? And couldn’t the same conclusion be applied to those who do teach eschatology but teach the wrong interpretation?

These teachings help us operate today. Studying Bible prophecy teaches us to endure to the end, to win the lost while there is time, and to occupy until He comes. It encourages holiness and reminds us we must finish the race well! It helps us cope as we see unbearable daily headlines that can be transformed into a herald of His coming. Bad news goes from darkness to expectancy.

And all of this is now missing from most of today’s churches and from the lives of most believers today. The topic is like the proverbial elephant in the room. Every Christian knows Jesus is coming back some day. But the topic is covered up with an ugly blanket because it is inconvenient and has misperceptions. It’s why excellent books like “Can We Still Believe in the Rapture?” are written and are, in fact, a modern-day tragedy.

So yes, we can still believe in the Rapture. And even though it is ridiculed and marginalized, it will happen some day! Perhaps even today. Never stop looking up. The blessed hope is our only hope! That is why the enemy is working overtime to drown out its message and characterize those who believe in it as off-base fools.

Some day they will be the ones who look foolish!

In the Last Days, Evil Will Wax Worse and Worse

By Jill Martin Rische

It is the twenty-first century, and Democrat witches in New York spent a recent Saturday casting spells and cursing Justice Brett Kavanaugh. This is what they do with their time—collect ten dollars a ticket to perform witchcraft internationally, and put a hex on an innocent man. And he is innocent because in America, everyone is innocent until proven guilty. This is a core value and a principle of our law.

But today your son, your husband, your father, your brother—all are guilty if a woman accuses them. All males, and especially white males, are evil and must be crushed. This is a brutal lesson learned from the Kavanaugh attack. The edict of the new, enraged Democrat Socialist Party is this: there is no equality under the law, no free speech, no freedom of religion, no basic human rights for anyone who disagrees with them—and they are coming for your family.

Demand Justice (DJ), a shadow group generously funded by George Soros, has huge amounts of money set aside to change the courts. According to the Daily Caller, DJ hopes to “sensitize rank-and-file progressives to think of the courts as a venue for their activism and a way to advance the progressive agenda.” Who runs Demand Justice? Brian Fallon, the former campaign spokesman for Hillary Clinton. So, as Barack Obama promised, this is change we can believe in—and it will happen without the intervention of God.

If we allow radical anarchists to eliminate equal justice under the law, America will fall.

It is critical that we recognize the powers and principalities behind this kind of warfare, and take up arms against them. Satan is prowling—it’s time to fight. The Bible is a supernatural book, the words of a supernatural God, and He reveals the plot behind everything that happens on earth.

This is the arena of heavenly warfare, and we must treat key battles like our lives depend on winning, because they do. It is our prayers of faith that arm us for battle and empower our actions.

Is this a spiritual warfare scenario?

Let’s stop for a moment and consider the enemy’s recent strategy:

Event: A copy of the Triumphal Arch of Baal arrived from Europe and was dedicated in Washington, D.C. Yes, it is a reminder that ISIS failed in its attempt to destroy the historic site of Palmyra, but for Christians, it is also a warning that Baal is alive and well today, and sitting center stage in the global media cycle.

Identity and Motive: Who was Baal? A particularly blood-thirsty “god” known for child sacrifice; the Bible calls him a demon (Deut 32:17). The Baal arch was erected with a view of the U.S. Capitol building directly in the center of the arch. Coincidence? The media would like everyone to think so, but this is a world of spiritual warfare and the Bible teaches there is no such thing as coincidence.

Identity and Weapon: The unveiling of the arch and the dedication ceremony for it took place on September 26, 2018—the day before Christine Blasey Ford testified against Brett Kavanaugh in a congressional hearing held on Capitol Hill. Why does the timing of this matter?

A little-known fact is that Christine Ford benefited from her association with the abortion industry. The media vehemently denies this but according to Ford's personal Linked In page (now deleted), she worked for Corcept Therapeutics as “director of biostatistics (2006-2012).” Corcept's key product is Mifeprex—the chemical that kills the human embryo in RU-486...the abortion pill.

Identity and Target: Brett Kavanaugh, a white male, heterosexual, a moral husband and father, and potential pro-life judge.

There is no such thing as coincidence.

We fight against the things that are not seen, and yes, Satan uses people. Peter found this out in a very unpleasant way, and God thought it was important enough to record in Scripture (Matt 16:23).

The people of Portland, Oregon, recently learned the hard way that humans enjoy evil, and if you do not act against them, they will come for you. Physical violence is now something we see daily in a country that was once peaceful; it is a fact of life. Our system of justice and yes, our Constitution, hang in the balance—the McCarthy times of the 1950s have returned.

Today, a godless culture would have us believe there is nothing real outside of our five senses, but the Bible teaches a sixth sense—the spiritual one. It is real and there are powers within it working against us. Every culture accepted the fact of the supernatural down through human history; this is nothing strange or new. Today, we are people of the living God, following His supernatural Word, and speaking His truth.

Truth demands a defense

Jude 3 tells us, “Earnestly contend for the faith, once for all delivered unto the saints.” This year, evil is out in full force. As God's people we must act and call on God to arise. There is another battle to be fought—new changes that must reverse the old—and He will fight for us.

Arise, O Lord; O God, lift up your hand; forget not the afflicted.

Why does the wicked renounce God and say in his heart,

“You will not call to account?”

But you do see, for you note mischief and vexation,

that you may take it into your hands...

Ps 10:12-14

Ingenuity Films Produces “Before the Wrath”

The makers of “The Convergence” DVD are producing a new film out the summer of 2019. It will combine drama with commentary. Ingenuity Films hopes to get this in theaters next summer. The emphasis will be on the Rapture of the church and some of the commentators include Amir Tsarfati, Pastor Jack Hibbs, and Jan Markell. Brent Miller, Jr. is the producer and director.

While scholars debate the timing of the Rapture, the world has lost why this event is prophesied to occur in the first place—knowledge that was once understood by those in the first century. Today, researchers in the Middle-East have rediscovered ancient anthropological evidence from the time of Christ that reveals exactly how and why the Rapture must occur, unveiling new biblical insight that will reignite hope for believers and prepare the world for what’s coming. A major focus of the film is the Jewish wedding.

Please note that the title of the film does not suggest the timing of the Rapture is pre-Wrath, a false teaching that came along in the 1990s. The producers and participants hold to a pre-Tribulation Rapture view.

Learn more and pre-order at www.beforethewrath.com.

Jan Markell is interviewed for commentary in the forthcoming film “Before the Wrath.”

THE OLIVE TREE IS ONE OF THE STRONGEST TREES...

When the dove returned to Noah after the deluge, it carried an olive branch. The olive tree was the first to flourish! Ever since, it has been a symbol of enduring life and health.

In Romans 9 - 11 the olive tree is the symbol of the spiritual heritage of Israel and the Jewish people. By God's grace, other peoples now share equal participation in His promises of eternal life and blessing.

Trapped in Hitler's Hell: A Young Jewish Girl Discovers the Messiah's Faithfulness in the Midst of the Holocaust

By Anita Dittman and Jan Markell

Book: $10 – 206 pages – softbound

Jan's classic book, now celebrating 38 years of making a difference. The remarkable story of Anita Dittman and her miraculous survival during the Hitler years. The story spans 12 riveting years of deprivation, captivity, escape, and walking across Europe to find her mother in a concentration camp. It is inspirational and puts trials in perspective. It demonstrates that with God, all things are possible. He truly never leaves or forsakes us.

"I read 'Trapped in Hitler's Hell' and loved it. It was mesmerizing, fascinating, inspirational, and God-exalting. And it was a masterpiece of writing!" – Dr. Dave Reagan, Lamb Lion Ministries

Documentary DVD: $15 – 75 minutes, full color, produced by George Escobar

"Brilliant. Gripping. A touch of cinematic expertise seldom seen. This drama was carried right to the heart of the viewer—me. I trust this dual production of film and book will be like an emotional hypodermic needle for America to awaken to the fact that the present leadership has placed the Western world on the cusp of the whole thing being repeated."—Merv Watson, Israel

Sons from Afar

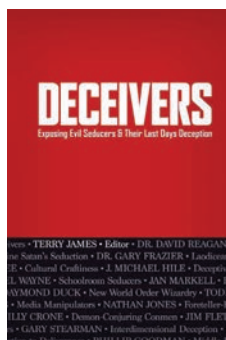

By Jan Markell

$10 – Book – 173 pages – softbound

This book by Jan Markell is a re-do of her classic Gone the Golden Dream. It is the true story of Joe Lessin and his sons. Joe's Judaism leaves him empty and he has a God-shaped vacuum in his heart. After he finds the real Messiah, Jesus Christ, he must win his family to Christ. His sons rebel for years, but then as it is promised in Isaiah 60:4, his sons come from afar and commit their lives to the true Messiah. Witness the power of a simple Gideon Bible hidden in a hotel drawer.

"This book is a powerful tribute to God's Word and the keeping of His promises. A double wow after reading it. For those struggling with unsaved loved ones, they need this awesome book!"—Dennis Rattenbury, MN

Why We May Be the Terminal Generation: 15 Signs of His Imminent Return

By Jan Markell

$14 – DVD – 60 minutes

Jan Markell feels there are many signs manifesting today that herald the return of Jesus Christ. While many will blossom in the Tribulation, they are casting a shadow today. Other signs are a warning for Church age believers and should be an encouragement that the King is coming.

"Enlightening and courageous. Not many have the courage you do to expose truth in all your presentations."—Martin Holbrook

Hidden in Plain View: The New World Order in Bible Prophecy

By Jan Markell

$14 – DVD – 60 minutes

Talk about a "new world order" and globalist efforts are not conspiracy nonsense. Learn who the major organizations and individuals are who are promoting this which is outlined in Revelation 13. It's manifesting now even before the Tribulation. It will take a global crisis to blossom and Jan reveals that is likely the Rapture. One viewer states, "This resonated with me like few messages have." It is a serious warning that the hour is late.

How the Blessed Hope Became the Blasted Hope: The Attack on Bible Prophecy

By Jan Markell

$14 – DVD – 60 minutes

Today Bible prophecy is scorned by even many evangelicals. Many who love the news that the King is coming are marginalized. Jan Markell explains why and how this happened. She names the names of the major players who have steered people away from the greatest news there is in dark times. The presentation will still encourage you to look up even as headlines are worsening. Jesus is coming again, and soon, whether the church is excited about that or not.
