The Crisis That Didn't Go to Waste

By Jan Markell

For almost two years, the globalists have been conducting an experiment on us. It has been Satanically-inspired. The last two years have been a check to see how obedient we will be! In short, how much we will absorb without objection and even pushback. Many are behaving like sheeple, obeying every order, while others are willing to risk all for freedom and liberty.

The scheme was likely in the works for years or decades, but officially was launched at "Event 201" in October of 2019. This was a conference organized by the Gates Foundation, comprised of billionaires, bankers, and global elites. They even gave out stuffed Covid toys!

They simulated a worldwide pandemic and contemplated the destruction of economies and how to respond. They visualized a new world order where there is no poverty, a much smaller world population, and where they rule indefinitely.

But they needed a fear-induced crisis. And then the pandemic hit and changed the lifestyle of people in almost 200 nations. The result of this engineered crisis is lawless mandates and rising tyranny.

The result is good employees being unemployed for avoiding vaccine mandates and horrific division in families, churches, and all of society. In essence, a two-tiered society has emerged of the vaccinated vs. the unvaccinated. Whoever could have imagined?

Some have called this a "plandemic" and have called it the most horrific scheme and experiment in human history. The early request for fifteen days to slow the spread morphed into "two jabs or lose your job." The American government said they would never mandate vaccines, but changed their tune quickly.

But if you listen to the global elite, they have a glorious future planned for humanity. Understand that the government will take care of everything and you will own nothing and be happy. But we will have peace and safety if we follow our leaders. And good health.

In December, the pandemic became more apocalyptic. Some nations toyed with the idea of embedding Covid vaccine passports under the skin in your hand. Sweden announced they were implementing this. Now images from the book of Revelation are leaping out at us.

John Whitehead, head of the respected Rutherford Institute, has been sounding an alarm. He has warned of the overreach of government, starting with Australia's quarantine camps.

He states, "We have a system just begging to be abused by power-hungry bureaucrats desperate to retain their power at all costs. It's happened before. As history shows, the U.S. government is not averse to locking up its own citizens for its own purposes.

"We only need to go back to the 1940s when the federal government proclaimed that Japanese-Americans were dangerous, labeled them dissidents, and put them in internment camps based only upon their ethnic origin. Here we see the lengths governments will go to maintain 'order' in the homeland."

Whitehead concludes, "The U.S. Supreme Court validated this program if governments need to ensure safety of the country. It can then trump all personal liberties."

Austrians are pleading for help as they face huge fines and one year in jail for refusing an experimental vaccine. The perpetrator also has to pay for his food and his prison cell. The Austrian government does not ask murderers, rapists, or pedophiles to pay the cost of their incarceration. However, they will now demand prison payments for those not following the Covid agenda, starting with the vaccine.

Millions are demonstrating in two-dozen countries demanding their governments back off and let them live free once again. Parts of Australia are a gulag as leaders there know no shame and are proud of their authoritarianism. It's for the greater good.

Dr. Anthony Fauci now admits, "We're going to have to start living with Covid. I believe that's the case because I don't think we're going to eradicate it." That means that there isn't going to be an end to the vaccine passports, the mandates or the injections. You are going to keep getting shots year after year after year in order to keep earning the "privileges" that you have been granted by these elitists. “Going back to normal” may be a pipedream.

A Mr. Fix-It is waiting in the wings, eager to take advantage and turn the masses towards him. Before that can happen, the Church must disappear in what is known as the Rapture. What we see happening now reminds us to relax our grasp on the things of this world and to watch as never before for our departure to the place our Savior is preparing for us.

Join the Prophecy Roundtable “Live”!

Once or twice a month, join the roundtable live on YouTube and Facebook Live. Amir Tsarfati, Jan Markell, Pastor Barry Stagner, and Mike Golay, discuss prophecy-related issues and take your questions live. Sign up for the e-newsletter of Behold Israel and be kept apprised of the dates! They are always posted, post-roundtable, to our website under video, and to our YouTube channel.

Most report to us that they can hardly keep up with all the news and information that breaks daily and hourly! Much of it has biblical implications. Much of what is happening is a reminder that the hour is late. With each presentation by these four prophecy leaders, a special topic is tackled and analyzed. Then we invite your participation.

When the Remnant Grows Weary

By Jan Markell

In September, I had the privilege of traveling to Southern California to minister at the Behold He Comes conference at Pastor Jack Hibbs' church. I also met weary remnant believers who are looking for the like-minded and often coming up short. How can we be in these mind-numbing times and not have every single Christian asking what it all means? Maybe because the church is now in Laodicea and today's church—with some exceptions—is more interested in conforming than transforming.

Their Church Awakened to Wokeness

I heard many express dismay that during the Covid shutdown of months to a year or more, their church went “woke.” What on earth does that mean? I learned that many pulpits became more interested in skin color than the gospel of salvation. In just a short time, their church had a complete transformation—and not a good one. The George Floyd incident, which took place less than a half hour from my office—had changed the culture and all of society. The church did not escape.

Social justice is the new urgency, and saving the planet. Not saving souls. And certainly not looking up and listening for a trumpet blast!

I learned that people talking about the excitement of the Lord's soon return are dealing with people with short fuses so to speak. This irritated people more than usual. Many only wanted life “to return to normal”, whatever that means. Watching dysfunctional society seemed to cause people to cling even more to this broken planet. Perhaps this was because life was now filled with inconvenience, the threat of job losses, and alienation from loved ones over vaccine and related issues.

When Reality Becomes Too Frightening

People seemed to want “their best life now” rather than long for eternal rewards. The pandemic has caused so much sorrow and change that some are not coping well. Their “best life” is evaporating. You would think that would result in loosening a grip on a broken planet. That is often not the case.

Everyone I spoke with at this conference stated they could hardly keep up with the hourly events that are leaping out of the Bible into reality. They acknowledge that their friends and family members who are indifferent to this, truly love the Lord and serve Him well. They are not second class Christians—they just put little priority on understanding the times. But reality has turned too negative for them.

When I returned home, I got this e-mail from a conference attendee:

"Jan, I am viewed as crazy just by mentioning how excited I am for the Lord to return or about the times we are in. It makes me downright nervous to even mention world news and events, or end-time prophecies. The reaction from fellow believers is volatile. I am having trouble finding even one person in my life who would be willing to discuss any of today's issues. What is most disheartening is the indifference of my church of 30 years."

The Pace Is Quickening!

So everything has accelerated as the Bible said would happen in that last generation, but interest in the phenomenon is at an all-time low. And weary remnant watchmen are left alone and isolated! Those they mingle with are just waiting for normal to return and for life to carry on!

Yes, just about everyone, including unbelievers, know that nothing is as it used to be. It is stunningly obvious that money is driving everything, including the vaccine issues. All would acknowledge, both on the right and the left, that government is growing out-of-control. Liberties are being violated on a daily basis as politicians meet in smoke-filled rooms to scheme and deny rights to the people. In America, the Constitution has been tossed in a trash can.

Soon we will be a vaccine passport society and the unvaccinated will assume "yellow star" status. How did this happen? This is hardly the "normal" people think will return.

Prepping for Mr. Fix-It

Society is being prepped for the Antichrist and as prophecy-loving believers try to warn, the words are falling on a lot of deaf ears.

The stage is being set for a closing act. The players are getting into their proper positions. Heads of state are meeting to plot and scheme. They have no idea they are majoring in minors. To them, it makes perfect sense to obsess over carbon emissions. During the Tribulation, this will fade from their memories as they cope with Seals, Trumpets and Bowls. These will spark "climate change" they cannot imagine!

May I encourage you to hang on a bit longer? You want a front row seat for this last act. It's the one that translates us to Heaven! Jesus is about to step onto the clouds of glory and shout, 'Come up here!'

When we see all these things we have seen—and continue to see—we are to look up and lift up our heads for He is on the way for His own.

The Guardian of International Peace and Security

By Jan Markell

When they are saying, "Peace and safety! (security)" then sudden destruction will come upon them like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. —1 Thessalonians 5:3

Unfortunately, this is not just a bad rumor. This absolutely gigantic statue is called "The Guardian of International Peace and Security", and it looks like something out of a science fiction movie. It resides right outside of the U.N. headquarters in NYC.

Of course, when Christians see this, they are immediately going to think of the Antichrist "beast" that is described in Revelation chapter 13:2—"And the beast, which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority."

Here is what the United Nations says about this. "A guardian for international peace and security sits on The Visitor's Plaza outside U.N. headquarters. The guardian is a fusion of a jaguar and an eagle and is donated by the government of Mexico."

No one is suggesting that this piece of artwork is tied to a literal Antichrist, but it would be interesting to know where the artists got their inspiration.

And why has the most prestigious globalist outfit on earth tapped into it?

Daniel 7 refers to end time beasts as well! Four beasts come up out of the sea. One is like a lion, but with eagle's wings. A second beast was like a bear. Then a leopard with wings and four heads. Then a fourth beast, with iron teeth and ten horns.

These beasts are apocalyptic to be sure, and a deep study of Daniel reveals their end-time purposes.

These prophetic passages in the Bible are very well known, and officials at the U.N. must have realized that the statue would be linked to such passages by millions of people. But they displayed this piece of art anyway! Someone suggested this was a welcome mat for the Antichrist. We don't know that, but it is possible!

God is revealing these things to those who are spiritually discerning and awake in this hour to assure us that the time of the end is drawing closer and that we need to be watchful as the "Day of the Lord" is at hand.

Comfort One Another

By Terry James

(Note from Jan: I often quote author Terry James. I am reprinting a recent article of his. Terry is co-editor of the Rapture Ready website and the general editor of the book we carry, "Lawless: End Times War Against the Spirit of Antichrist", found on our website and at the back of this magazine.)

This is for those who are believers in Christ and who believe what God's Word says about things to come. Not that I intentionally want to leave out those believers who don't study God's prophetic Word, or those who are lost because they haven't accepted God's grace offer of salvation through Christ's sacrifice.

However, without a firm grasp of what the Bible has to say about things to come, and without acceptance of God's grace gift by those who are spiritually lost, Heaven's message contained herein cannot assuage the intensifying fear spreading across the globe.

Because of the dire prospects facing the inhabitants of planet earth, many, perhaps most, turn inward and do their best to ignore the darkening foreshadowing that intrudes upon their lives.

That intruding evil includes such things as supposedly the worst pandemic since that of 1918. And the variants of that disease just keep coming, according to the would-be world controllers who want everyone forced to take vaccines that are at best experimental.

Their effects in preventing or making the disease less life-threatening are yet unproven. And the vaccines are not held to the same degree or level of lab testing as others of history. As a matter of fact, some claim they aren't vaccines at all, but ingestible of unknown materials.

There is credence to this charge, because full disclosure of ingredients is not forthcoming. The vaccine producers are protected against any liability from the proliferating cases of adverse reactions being experienced across the globe.

Because of the COVID paralysis, the nation, and world, face dire economic prospects. Supply chains for goods are severely disrupted. Deliveries are greatly delayed or not being made at all because of people who refuse to take the vaccines are losing their jobs for not complying with governmental and company mandates.

Millions are walking off of their jobs in protest of the threat of loss of personal liberty. Their children are facing diminished education because of the COVID-spawned tyranny.

Education itself is in a darkly evolving trajectory. Critical Race Theory and other evil inculcation has caused upheavals across the country, with parents standing up against the cancel culture in schools and the insane rules and restrictions coming from leftist, radical school boards.

Inflation has raised its ugly head to levels near the time of the Carter

administration's "malaise" of the 1970s. This is predicted to get much, much worse as the economy shuts down, fewer products are on the shelves of stores, and inflation explodes.

Energy costs, already increasing day by day, are projected to get much worse in the near future. Gasoline prices at the pumps are entering uncharted territory in rising costs per gallon.

Threats from the "open borders" policy of the Biden administration bodes ill for American life in more ways than can be adequately analyzed. The invasion is being used by those of the leftist mindset to distribute the hordes of illegal aliens in order to change the voting of future elections in their favor.

People look for hope in directions other than the darkening horizon. But, sadly, most look inward, as stated previously, not in the direction they should look in seeking a brighter prospect for their lives.

Sadly, even the pulpits of America are filled by pastors who point congregants to cope with their daily troubles in societal and cultural ways—to the exclusion of prophetic hope.

Teaching to cope is well and good, if done with Christ at the center of the messages on how to best get along in this life on a deteriorating, disintegrating planet. But people in the pews and across the nation and world virtually never are shown the magnificent future that awaits those who truly understand the majesty and promises wrapped up in the Name that is above every other.

In that Name resides a future of incomprehensible life and prosperity beyond imagination. His is the only name that can comfort the demonically savaged souls of these closing days of the age.

Preachers who are truly messengers of Jesus Christ should be shouting from the elevated platforms of their pulpits. We should be doing the same at every opportunity.

All the things surrounding us that point to planet earth's most wicked time of destruction, are a holy siren of alert. Jesus is about to step onto the clouds of glory and shout, "Come up here!" When we see all these things we have seen—and continue to see—we are to look up and lift up our heads. For He is on the way for His own. This is the ultimate promise from the Creator-God—from Jesus Himself.

What promise! What incomparable comfort!

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words. (1 Thessalonians 4:16–18)

Will There be War in the New Year?

There are “rumors of war” in the Middle East. Almost every news outlet is writing about it with an ominous tone. It is sounding inevitable.

Amir Tsarfati, Israeli Bible teacher, writes, “The mood is as tense as it has ever been between Israel and Iran. The Israeli Defense Minister, Benny Gantz, said that Israel is actively preparing for war with the terrorist regime in Tehran. The Israeli Air Force (IAF) is regularly conducting exercises, as is the civilian population that is preparing in case of an attack.”

Amir continues, “The tension all centers on the fact that Iran either has enough, or is on the verge of having enough, weapons-grade uranium to make a bomb. Israel has no doubt that when Iran has a bomb, they will use it on us. How do we know? They’ve told us. If Israel does strike, there is the possibility that it can trigger an Ezekiel War scenario known as Gog-Magog. All sides are ready for a full-blown confrontation.”

America and the Israel Effect

We are carrying a popular DVD produced by Stephen Briggs and Hatikvah Films. The premise of the film is based on Genesis 12:3—that there are blessings and cursings God places upon individuals, nations, governments, and more, based on their treatment of Israel.

How does America fare with this biblical mandate? How does the Biden administration fit into the scenario? They are rapidly planning diplomacy that will hurt God’s covenant land and people.

America has a unique relationship with Israel. It took President Harry Truman just ten minutes to have the U.S. cast a “yes” vote in the United Nations for Israeli statehood in 1948.

President Nixon was the next major player who virtually saved Israel from destruction during the 1973 Yom Kippur war. While his Cabinet and State Department suggested he stay out of that war, he honored Golda Meir’s requests for massive military aid that turned the war around. Both of these presidents had mothers who had taught them to stand by the Jews.

President Donald Trump was a tremendous blessing to Israel. He finally moved the U.S. Embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem on her 70th anniversary.

It is believed America has enjoyed some prosperity, in part, due to the ways in which she has been at Israel’s side for many years.
