Trending Towards the Tribulation

By Jan Markell

I have been watching the convergence of the so-called signs of the times ever since someone handed me Hal Lindsey's "Late-Great Planet Earth" many years ago. The book got my attention! Since then, I am fascinated with how Bible prophecy is being fulfilled now for several decades.

The apocalypse is in the air!

But in the last few years, things are happening so quickly that observers of the times can't keep up. It's as though the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse are now out of the barn, but they can't make their global appearance until the Church is called Home in the Rapture. The Bible is clear that we will be with Jesus in Heaven before these riders begin their deadly trek across planet earth.

Here is a very short list of things I am noting in this year of 2022, indicating time is winding down and we will be whisked away very soon.

- We already see the formation of this coming New World Order through the U.N. and the World Economic Forum (WEF). Without firing a shot, they have gained the allegiance of most world leaders for their Marxist plans to enslave the people of the world. The globalists believe they have the means to reshape the world, according to their agenda, via the influence they have gained over the global leaders of our day. A one-world government will be birthed once the Church vacates! The players are in place.

- Three words in the Bible jumped out at me recently: "without natural affection" (II Tim. 3:3). That happens to a final generation. But, who could have imagined today's society celebrating the trans movement, homosexual marriage, and the slaughtering of the unborn? All of these operate "without natural affection."

And these issues are a leftist obsession! They love every imaginable aberration. Those standing for biblical values, such as pro-life groups, are under literal violent attack!

- That same passage opens talking about "perilous times." Sure, we've had perilous times since WWI. The destruction of WW2 was unthinkable. But, now Russia's lunatic leader is

threatening the world with nukes. One could be unleashed before this magazine reaches your mailbox. There are more than 40 wars or serious conflicts raging in the world right now, displacing millions and often involving circumstances that are, indeed, perilous.

- Let me spend an extra moment on economic issues, inflation, and famine, all prophesied to occur during Daniel's 70th Week, or the Tribulation, the "time of Jacob's trouble." Are we not seeing the stage-setting for that now?

As the food "apocalypse" approaches, the poorest peoples will suffer as they always do. But it is feared that the pain will rapidly move up the global food chain. With that comes a surge in political turbulence, humanitarian crises, and global instability.

Add to this the shortage of fertilizer and the word apocalypse is, indeed, appropriate and not over used here. U.S. farmer sentiment plummeted in May as producers have become anxious about their farms' financial health. More than 60% of farmers predict farm input prices to be at least 30% higher this year compared to 2021.

Throw in the mysterious destruction of multiple food processing plants and in June, the deaths of thousands of cattle from excessive heat—or was it foul play?

Also in June, the soaring stock market took a nose dive and Fed Chairman, Jerome Powell, admitted they are looking at replacing cash with digital currency.

Surely the black horse is ready to ride!

- To be blunt, economies around the world are on the verge of collapse. JP Morgan Chase CEO Jamie Dimon is warning about a "coming economic hurricane." He states, "Right now, it's kind of sunny; things are doing okay. Everyone thinks the Fed can handle this—but that hurricane is out there, down the road and coming our way. We don't know if it's Superstorm Sandy or Andrew. You better brace yourself."

- How can I not reference the raging apostasy, the wolves among the flock, and the doctrine of demons all thriving in many churches today? This sad state of church affairs may be one of the most significant signs of the times out there.

In May we learned that a new study from the Cultural Research Center at Arizona Christian University found that just 37% of Christian pastors in America have a biblical worldview. A spiritual awakening is needed in the pulpit just as much as in the pews! Imagine that two-thirds of our pastors (all denominations) don't have a biblical worldview!

- As this goes to press, Israel is sounding the war drums. In the face of Iran's continued development of nuclear capability (she's almost there), the Israeli Air Force has developed a new capability to fly its F-35 jets from Israel to Iran without requiring mid-air refueling.

This development is a boost to the IAF capabilities and comes as the Israeli military has upped its preparations for a strike against Iran's nuclear capabilities—a scenario possible even yet this summer! This may be the most stunning geopolitical development of 2022—even more grave than Russia's brutal invasion of Ukraine.

Throw into the mix the collapse of Israel's government in June. Word has it that Joe Biden and his administration will do everything they can to prevent a return of Benjamin Netanyahu, one of Israel's finest leaders.

I have provided just a few short bullet points that I have kept my eye on here in 2022 that tell me the King is coming any day. I could list dozens more. We are trending towards the Tribulation, the "time of Jacob's trouble." And while believers can rejoice at our destination, remember that contained in the above situations are much suffering and perplexity globally. And human beings cannot solve these problems. That is why the word "perplexity" is seen in Luke 21:25.

The King of Kings must return to establish His earthly Kingdom on earth and clean up chaos, confusion, and consternation brought about by the Antichrist and his minions. The stage is being set now. The curtain for the last act could rise any day.

Join the Prophecy Roundtable "Live"!

Once or twice a month, join the roundtable live on YouTube and Facebook. Amir Tsarfati, Jan Markell, Pastor Barry Stagner, and Mike Golay discuss prophecy-related issues and take your questions live. Sign up for the e-newsletter of Behold Israel and be kept apprised of the dates! Go to the Home page at www.beholdisrael.org. They are always posted, post-roundtable, to our website, www.olivetreeviews.org

Most report to us that they can hardly keep up with all the news and information that breaks daily and hourly! Much of it has biblical implications. Much of what is happening is a reminder that the hour is late. With each presentation by these four prophecy leaders, a special topic is tackled and analyzed. Then, we invite your participation.

What Happened to My Church?

By Jan Markell

Church issues are the most frequent inquiry I get here at Olive Tree Ministries. Other leaders tell me the same. What has happened in the last 30-40 years? Many people visit church after church only to walk away disheartened. Others are lifetime members of a church and have seen changes that left it unrecognizable — spiritually speaking.

At first, members and attendees wonder if they are being a bit too judgmental, but the sad reality eventually sinks in that something has gone terribly wrong.

Nothing Could Have Prepared Me

My background is in a fundamental church in Minneapolis that delivered verse-by-verse messages and had frequent prophecy conferences. Try to find that today! You will find a few but they are few and far between. This same church warned me about a coming apostasy, but who knew it would morph into what we see today? Nothing could have prepared me.

First it was music that became the great divider. Nobody minds some guitars and a bass, but into the second decade of the 21st Century, ear plugs are handed out as one enters the church sanctuary.

Some churches open with a secular song, dim the lights, add some smoky fog, and have an atmosphere similar to the local bar. All of this is to enhance choruses that will be sung two-dozen times by hypnotized church members. I would learn that it is to attract “seekers” — a 21st Century term.

What Was Wrong With the Old Ways of Doing Church?

Someone made a conscious decision that we should have a “new way of doing church”, although many members and attendees agreed there was nothing wrong with old ways of doing church. Terms began being used like “purpose-driven,” “seeker-sensitive,” “church-growth movement,” “postmodernism”, “Emergent”, “wokeness”, and more.

People started to hear about love, unity, and tolerance. We must be known for what we agree on, not what we disagree on. Everything and everyone must be accepted. Aberrations must be accepted. Sin must be accepted. People loved having their ears tickled. They would be encouraged to “feel good” and have their self-esteem built up. Sound doctrine was being set aside.

Saving the Planet But Not Saving Souls??

The saving of souls was being set aside for the entertainment factor, for social justice causes, and for saving the planet. It seemed that many in the church no longer cared that so many were on their way to

What Happened to My Church?

hell! What an offensive, intolerant thought. But clearly sound doctrine will separate and divide so we must tread lightly in that area.

Relevant issues have vanished. Pulpits have become afraid to talk about voting biblical values. It seemed like an “eleventh commandment” came into the church: Thou shalt not offend. Taking a stand was clearly over.

When it came to issues like Bible prophecy, the silence became deafening! People were told this was “divisive” although rock music in the church apparently was not! Millions are going to be left behind at the Rapture of the Church, but there are no warnings about this going out from hardly any church. Instead, pulpits are dispensing messages that talk about “your best life now” on this broken, corrupt planet.

This is just a short explanation as to why e-mails and letters pour into this ministry and others asking about how they might find a healthy, relevant church in their neighborhood.

A Fork in the Road: Which Way?

As a ministry leader and radio host, I was confronted with the fact that I had two choices: I could overlook this trend or expose it. I took the warning to watchmen in Ezekiel 33 very seriously, and I determined to confront the false teaching head-on and tell the truth about it.

I began my research by tracing the history of false doctrine and reckless church movements going back to the early 1900s to the present. From mystical madness such as so-called Christian Yoga, to the experiential of the New Apostolic Reformation, wolves were prowling around the flock.

Ecumenism soared and Protestants began embracing Catholicism. Kenneth Copeland announced that the Reformation was over and featured a rep from the Vatican saying we were all Catholics again. I observed something called the “laughing revival” and I concluded that it wasn’t so funny. In fact, it was dangerous.

The Odds Aren’t Great!

I could go on and on. You can see that the odds of you having a healthy, well-balanced church are slim, but they are out there! If you have one, thank God for it daily. If you don’t, know that you are not alone. Millions visit nearly every potential church in town and walk away perplexed and heart broken. Are they looking for perfection? A few may be, but most are not.

They just know today’s church would most likely not be recognized by their parents or grandparents. Jesus said the gates of hell would not prevail against the church (Matt. 16:18). Having said that, the gates of hell are trying like crazy to penetrate the church, change it, change its message, change its purpose, distort the gospel, and wear down the saints — pastors included. Pray for our pastors daily!

Christ died for the Church and we cannot give up on it! A heavenly endless church service awaits us in Eternity with a celestial choir and orchestra. The preaching will also be out of this world! We'll all be one denomination. The bickering will be over with. We won't insist on our own way. We'll finally be in one accord.

Amir Tsarfati, author, speaker, tour guide

In a historic move, Israel has just signed a deal with the European Union to export natural gas through the year 2050. This is important for several reasons:

- 1) Israel has officially become an energy superpower.
- 2) The EU has always hated Israel, but now they have become great friends. This is important because it is from that part of Europe that the Antichrist will rise, and Israel will ally with him.
- 3) The countdown to the Russian invasion to plunder the spoils of Israel in the Ezekiel 38 Gog-Magog War has begun. Russia's primary source of income is its energy exports. Losing its number one customer, Europe, to Israel, will rapidly become untenable.

Joel Rosenberg, author, commentator

Israel's government appears to have collapsed with a fifth election up ahead. On June 13, 2021, Naftali Bennett was sworn in as Israel's 13th prime minister. Exactly one year and one week later, Bennett is done.

Yamina, the political party he founded and is supposed to lead, has imploded, and so has Bennett's hold on power. One member of Yamina after another refused to follow his lead. It was not opposition leader Benjamin Netanyahu and the Likud Party that did Bennett in. No, this was an implosion of Bennett's own making.

On top of all this, I remain astonished that Bennett and his team were so unwilling to make time for interviews with Christian journalists. Indeed, over his entire year as prime minister,

Bennett refused to give an interview to a single Christian media outlet.

Leo Hohmann, journalist and author

Dr. Pippa Malmgren told the World Government Summit that “we are on the brink of abandoning the traditional system of money and accounting and introducing a new one...it means digital. It means having an almost perfect record of every single transaction that happens in the economy, which will give us far greater clarity over what is going on.”

This bombshell statement by Malmgren did not take place in a vacuum. It took place at a time when at least 91 nations, according to the Atlantic Council, are developing digital, programmable currencies (that track what you buy).

Joe Biden, on March 9, issued an executive order demanding several federal agencies present him with a plan within 180 days, for creating a new Fed-controlled digital dollar. The plan is to drive these two fundamental transformations of society – digital money and digital IDs for all people – into place on the backs of a series of crises that will carry us straight into their one-world beast system. It’s a well-set trap.

Michele Bachmann, Dean, Robertson School of Government, Regent University

The Biden administration is seeking to take the Golan Heights, which President Trump recognized as being a part of Israel in 2019. Israel owns that; that’s their land. That is now under a big question mark from the Biden administration. Joe Biden wants Israel to collapse their boundaries back to 1967. There is no basis and no reason why Israel would do that, and yet that is the demand coming forth.

The Bible sends a stark and prophetic warning against nations that seek to divide the nation of Israel and, specifically, its capital Jerusalem. Zechariah 12:3 states: “And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.”

The Biden administration is seeking to divide Jerusalem so that eastern Jerusalem would become the new capital for the new Palestinian State. They’re looking at statehood. They are very adamant. Everything that they are pushing for, that they are doing, is anti-Israel and pro a Palestinian state and pro-Iran.

So the Biden administration is enriching and empowering Israel's enemies at the expense of peace, prosperity, and security in Israel. Nations will be held accountable. It's time to pray!

Jonathan Brentner, author

I'm weary of the excuses that I hear from pastors as to why they cannot talk about Jesus' glorious return for His church. I'm tired of preachers going to great lengths to avoid saying the dreaded word, "Rapture." You would think the church building roof would instantly cave in on the worshippers at even the mention of such a dreaded word.

Why are pastors today so afraid to talk about our future new bodies and Jesus' return to take us to the place that He is preparing for us (John 14:1-3)? The good news they have to share is beyond spectacular and amazing, yet so many go to great lengths to avoid talking about our "blessed hope."

Pastors say they fear causing division, but is that any reason to avoid teaching what Scripture tells us about the day in which we live? Is that any cause to withhold the truths about our glorious future from the ones who need it the most as they face perilous times? Pastors today have the most spectacular news, an over-the-top wonderful and joyous hope to share with their people. Why the silence?

Is This What You Had in Mind, America?

By Hal Lindsey

Is this what you had in mind, America? Mass shootings one after another? Government paralyzed, not by disagreements, but by hate? The ongoing loss of constitutional rights...inflation...stagnation...despondency, especially among the young? Millions caught in a seemingly unbreakable cycle of poverty?

Is this what you had in mind, America, when you said God had no place in public schools, or when you made local movie theaters a cesspool of wickedness?

When "Wokeness" Awakens

You made the military a giant guinea pig for social experimentation, turned military academies into institutions of wokeness that hate fundamental American values, and you promoted the most politically correct into the highest positions of authority. Even though the rank and file of your military remains the best in the world, your leaders fail them, as in Afghanistan.

Through abortion, you taught the

young that human life has no value, and you wonder why suicide is the leading cause of death among people between the ages of 10 and 34 — or why 18-year-olds shoot up schools and supermarkets. In school, you turned sex education into an opportunity to promote sexual perversions of all kinds. And you wonder why one in five Americans is mentally ill. You shred families. You disparage the idea that children need fathers and mothers, and you can't figure out why they bully and cheat and turn to violence.

Living for “Likes” on Social Media

You made your music all about sin and sensuality — degrading rather than uplifting. You made leaders out of the loudest, least thoughtful among us. You made a god out of popularity on social media. You replaced statesmanship with the poison-pal politics of hate. You allowed the media to become your thought shepherds rather than your fact finders.

And what about you, Church? Is this what you had in mind? Did you plan to become weak and ineffective? When you traded in Bible-infused messages with pop psychology, is this what you had in mind? Is that what you wanted when you made entertaining children the priority over teaching them?

God as a Last Resort

God says, “Look to Me,” but you look instead to political saviors. In fact, you look to man first in all things, leaving God as a last resort. And why not? After all, you teach that the great God, Creator of all things, is nothing more than a friendly little pal whose primary purpose is to help you feel good about yourself.

Is this what you had in mind, Church, when you chose to embrace the world's definitions of prosperity and blessing rather than God's — or chose a saccharine-sweet façade instead of the glorious reality of the omnipotent God?

When you threw away reverence, did you have this in mind? You tried to make church doctrine all things to all people. You wanted to be liked and not seen as peculiar. But by watering down the Gospel, you laid your own children on Moloch's altar.

Come Out from Among Them and be Separate!

A remnant remains — lit from within by the glowing fires of the Holy Spirit. But to a stunning extent, the Church is drowning in worldliness. When the people of earth need more than ever for the Church to be distinct, it has emulated the world so long and with such ardor, that people have a hard time telling one from the other. But God still says, “Come out from among them, and be ye separate!” (2 Corinthians 6:17 KJV)

Global Reset: Do Current Events Point to the Antichrist and His Worldwide Empire? By Mark Hitchcock and Jeff Kinley

You need to get acquainted with the goals and timetable of the World Economic Forum's Great Reset. It is likely to be fulfilled in the Tribulation but we are watching the set-up for it now. We do not know how much God will allow the Church to witness since we are removed prior to the Tribulation. This book provides an easy-to-understand road map to better understand how and why the globalists want to install their one-world system no later than 2030.

They are using pandemics, civil unrest, political unrest, natural disasters, and more, to convince the world that they must be in charge to bring about peace and safety!

Revealing Revelation: How God's Plan for the Future Can Change Your Life Now By Amir Tsarfati

This outstanding tour of the book of Revelation comes with a workbook for individual or group study. The book and optional workbook provide a timeline of what believers and nonbelievers will experience before, during, and after the Tribulation. It is filled with encouragement, challenges, and warnings Jesus gave us to prepare us for His return. This book is on many national best-sellers' lists.

Many people in the church are missing out on all the blessings that God Himself promises to those who read Revelation! This is Amir's best.

What's the Difference in a Millennium and a Millipede: Understanding End-Time Viewpoints By Dr. David Reagan

Do you know what you believe and what the alternative theologies are as it concerns eschatology? If not, David Reagan outlines it for you clearly! The tragic result of all this ignorance of Bible prophecy is that even though we are definitely living in the season of the Lord's return, the people in the pews are not being alerted to that fact. Additionally, they are being given little understanding of the chaotic times in which we are living. Understand all the end-time viewpoints so you can know which ones are the truth!

He hears God's call, embraces Jesus as Lord, lives for God's purpose, stays focused, acts with duty and responsibility, practices godly character, uses his strength to protect others, works with diligence, respects authority, cheers and cultivates his family, and advances the work of God.
