Can We Resist the Green Dragon in the Coming Year?

By Jan Markell

To the secular left, climate is king. Maybe I should say it is a god. Environmentalism has become a religion. People enthusiastically worship mother earth and scoff at God the Father. This has been a fifty-year process that officially began in the early 1970s with Earth Day. The left decided that anyone who disrespected the earth was suspect. So, how far will they go? Many voices are warning of climate lockdowns coming in 2023.

I am quoting online journalist Michael Snyder who writes, "Climate change lockdowns are here, and if people don't respond very strongly to this, it is likely that we will soon see similar measures implemented all over the western world. The elite have always promised to do 'whatever it takes' to fight climate change, and now we are finding out that they weren't kidding."

He says, "Over in the UK, residents of Oxfordshire will now need a special permit to go from one 'zone' of the city to another. But, even if you have the permit, you will still only be allowed to go from one zone to another 'a maximum of 100 days per year'".

He concludes, "Oxfordshire County Council yesterday approved plans to lock residents into one of six zones to 'save the planet' from global warming. The latest stage in the agenda is to place electronic gates on key roads in and out of the city, confining residents to their own neighborhoods."

Covid lockdowns set the gold standard. Many felt they could trust government to be for the people. Nothing could be further from the truth. Government is for advancing a control agenda. Now the lockdown mentality resurfaces for the green dragon.

Criticizing today's green agenda does not make one anti-environment and in favor of dirty air and water! Because mankind was created in

His image, God gave men and women a privileged place among all creatures and commanded them to exercise stewardship of the earth. (Gen. 1:26-28; Psalm 8:6-8)

How has the church responded? Some 25 years ago, they jumped on the climate change bandwagon. Articles on the website of the National Association of Evangelicals feature a push to recycle and an emphasis on what the Bible says about environmentalism, that suggests we are “killing the planet.” They state that “loving the least of these” (Matthew 25:40) has climate implications.

What happened to emphasizing winning the lost while there is still time? This has been the message of evangelicalism my entire life. Social justice and climate issues are pushing this aside. I would think that the evangelical pulpit would be stating the obvious: God controls the weather, and man has nothing to do with it!

The recent climate conference in Egypt much of November 2022, called COP 27, revealed the cultish agenda. The conference called for a new ten commandments for climate justice and repenting from climate sins. They called for a new covenant—a covenant between man and creation. If they could only understand that God plans a new heaven and new earth.

Yet 120 nations were in attendance doing their due diligence for the earth. The media downplayed the event, so only a few outlets gave it serious attention. Fortunately, many online sources revealed the bizarre behavior the world thinks is normal.

Stewardship implies caretaking, not abusing. We are to intelligently manage the resources God has given us, using all diligent care to preserve and protect them.

But, now this has become a green dragon! And this, just like Covid, could change our way of life and cause us the loss of even more freedoms. Are people going to roll over and cave to new rules and regulations, and even be immobilized with new forms of lockdowns? Many caved for Covid and went along with school closings and businesses closing their doors. But, government doesn't know best!

I believe this will be the left's big push in the new year. You can be persecuted for your carbon footprint, for not heating with solar panels, and for the kind of car you drive.

Can We Resist the Green Dragon in the Coming Year?

These are Covid policies re-born. Yes, it is leftist lunacy, but it also falls under the references in the Bible to end-time strong delusion. (2 Thess. 2:8-12)

And some churches will go along with this! I encourage them to be about the business of winning souls while there is time and spending very little time worrying about carbon footprints. Satan has masterfully gotten our churches to get their focus off of eternal issues and onto a hundred distractions.

Believe We're in the Last Days? You're Not Alone

By Jan Markell

One of the most frequent e-mails into this ministry is about how alone people feel. Many state they don't have even one person to share thoughts with as they pertain to our times and the lateness of the hour.

Yet, Pew Research just released a report that found among all U.S. adults, 39% say the "end times" are now.

That includes 47% of all Christians, which, in turn, included 55% of Protestants, 63% of evangelicals, 31% of mainline church members and 76% of historically black church memberships.

The poll states, "Periods of catastrophe and anxiety, such as the coronavirus pandemic, have historically led some people to anticipate that the destruction of the world as we know it – the 'end times' – is near. This thinking often has a religious component that draws on sacred scripture. In Christianity, for example, these beliefs include expectations that Jesus will return to Earth after or amid a time of great turmoil," the poll said.

The poll was referencing Christ's return in the Second Coming and not the Rapture. Evangelicalism remains the primary dispenser of eschatology, or the doctrine of the last days. Social justice, and other kinds of "woke theology" are capturing many churchgoers.

Prophecy in the News in the Last Year

By Jan Markell

Reflecting back on 2022, I found myself in the same yearly predicament. How do we select ten top stories of the year when, in reality, there were one hundred ten prominent happenings during the year as the last days wind down? Let me share some that I feel are worth discussing. All of them have prophetic implications.

The Rise of the World Economic Forum (WEF) Cabal and their Rush to Global Government

Ten years ago, had you heard of Klaus Schwab? How about Yuval Noah Harari? Were you tracking them even five years ago? Of course not. Today, many are aware of this crowd and their one-world intentions. A lot of our readers understand this is the true shadow government. Revelation 13 outlines their scheme well.

The Stirring Up of the Spirit of the Antichrist

We all see the new lawlessness and rebellion in every aspect of society! Its current overdrive was sparked in my hometown, Minneapolis, in May 2020, with the George Floyd ordeal. Now, police forces are reduced, criminals face no bail, and prosecutors encourage more lawlessness. But, the spirit of the Antichrist is everywhere—in our government, in our schools, and more. It is priming the pump for the real Antichrist.

Government Knows Best—Trust It

That has been the mantra in the Western world for almost three years. Trust the government for vaccines, to properly handle pandemics and other health issues, and to keep you well! Millions bought into it. Millions will now transition from trusting government to trusting the Antichrist.

The Rise of the Green Dragon: The Worship of Mother Earth

Entire continents have caved to the religion of climate change and environmentalism. They worship mother earth rather than loving Father God. Joe Biden wants to block the sun to fight global warming. In the name of saving energy, farmers in Europe are being put out of business, an action that is inviting a famine. Sane people know this is lunacy, but they are helpless when their governments mandate foolishness. (See page 1 for more commentary.)

The Race Towards Digital Currency: Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC)

Why are we surprised when our

World government proponents Klaus Schwab and Yuval Noah Harari

authorities tell us cash is going away? A cashless system plays a prominent biblical end-time role. More than 100 nations are exploring CBDCs, according to the IMF. The Biden Administration is pushing this. It is being portrayed as the answer to many of the world's problems! We could see it in 2023.

The Decline of America, Rise of Radical Liberalism, and Lack of a World Leader

Although it's tough to watch, America is in decline. At the same time, name even one global leader. Leftists are trying to make America a liberal paradise like Venezuela. Sadly, the result is more like a banana republic. Progressives are attempting to accomplish what every other Socialist/Communist country has: Destroy the middle class, obtain unending power, create a permanent welfare state, and create total dependence. You can't have a superpower when the goal is global government.

Christians Are Canceled; Jews are Under Attack

When Sam Brownbeck's National Committee for Religious Freedom needed a bank account, they went to J.P. Morgan Chase. They quickly realized their account was closed! They are fighting back. Restaurants are refusing to serve pro-life and pro-family people. Entire Christian villages in Nigeria are being wiped out. At the same time, Jews are under attack in many countries. Assaults have increased over 100% in the last year. New York City attacks against Jews are up 125% in the last year. The "people of the book", Jews and Christians, are hated as the Bible foretold.

The Rise of Strong Delusion and Global Deception

How else do you explain the rage that girls can become boys and boys can become girls? That men can join women's sports and change clothes in the ladies' locker rooms? And, that all of this is totally normal and healthy? Trans-identifying kids in the U.S. have increased almost by 1,000% in the last two years. How do you explain the love of killing a baby at any stage of life in the womb in a torturous procedure? God will not tolerate this much longer!

Running Amok: Apostasy in the Church

It would take a three-hundred-page book to summarize the current state of the church. In the last two years, thousands have gone "woke", seeker-sensitive, and more. Social justice has replaced salvation. Many teach that the church will make the world a better place—even perfect. The sheep are trying to find a solid church—and one that talks about issues of the day and Bible

prophecy. Many churches want to tell people they can have their best life now.

The Staggering Rise of the Paranormal and Occult, Called Sorcery in the Bible

The world, and some in the church, are dancing with the devil. Social media encourages this and provides a platform. Even Christians dabble in things they know they shouldn't. Then, there is the blatant—the Commonwealth Games last summer that featured the re-creation of the Tower of Babel and a woman riding a beast—with many bowing down to the beast. This is all leading to rampant sorcery talked about in Revelation, and there it is combined with drugs.

What did you think the last days would look like? Believe the Bible when it calls our times perilous and filled with people possessing selfish, reckless motives. And, keep an eye on these stories in 2023 as they further play out.

God is orchestrating events to wind up this amazing drama known as the Church Age. The last act may be on display. Expect a trumpet and a shout any day. (1 Thess. 4:16)

How Much Longer, Lord?

By Jan Markell

Daily I hear from people who just long to leave this broken planet, to rejoin loved ones in heaven, and to escape bodies that are bruised and broken. Many try to stay up on our times to be able to explain our bizarre world to friends and family. Headlines get them down. Stories of loss and tragedy get to be overwhelming. And they feel helpless to change a sinful world.

John from Washington state writes, "How much longer will Father wait to send Jesus to take us home? Plain as day we see all the signs. We see famine at the door, increasing abuse, and soon freezing without ability to heat homes. We have some of the most vile leaders and evil on both sides. Our faith is being tested for sure."

Then Karen, from Minnesota, wrote the following, "Would you please present a radio show to encourage your listeners who are discouraged and made doubtful by rampant evil and the delayed Rapture? 'The Late Great Planet Earth' was published decades ago."

She concludes, "Keeping the faith becomes more challenging every day. We believers have cricks in our necks from looking up. Will the Savior EVER rescue us from this scary world gone kafkaesque and looking like a Dali painting?"

The answer is found in this familiar verse: "The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise, as some understand slowness. Instead, He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance" (2 Peter 3:9–12).

Biden Bucks: The Dangers of Digital Currency

By Patricia Lewis, World Net Daily

NOTE FROM JAN: Digital currency is coming. We're seeing a dress rehearsal for it now. Some call this "Biden Bucks." I am using a partial article by Patricia Lewis to further explain this fast-approaching train. I have shortened the article for this publication.

But understand that Joe Biden knows little about this. This is driven by the globalists, who want us to own nothing and be happy, and to be totally under their control. It further sets the stage for the Antichrist, who can control the world much more easily if this type of financial system is in place.

In Biden's vision, digital currency will "advance democracies to lift people up, not to hold them down." Naturally, digital currency is being offered as a "solution" to problems we never realized we had. It's touted as far more efficient, easy, environmentally beneficial, and even more sanitary than paper currency. With digital currency, gone are the troublesome days when cash must be printed or minted. Now the government can flood the system with untold trillions of digital dollars at the push of a button. Now that's efficiency!

There are many risks. Digital currency would be vulnerable to hacking, technological glitches, and power outages. Any hiccup in the system would mean your funds are not available "at this time." When regional disasters happen (such as Hurricane Ian) with widespread power outages, no one in the affected areas would be able to exchange currency, adding additional distress on top of existing misery.

Bitcoin expert Anthony Pompliano calls digital currency "one of the greatest violations of human rights in history." He writes, "Once a central bank digital currency is in the hands of a population, the central bank has solidified complete control."

These central bankers will be able to see what is in your bank account, who you transact with, what you purchase, and anything else they are curious about in your financial life. That full transparency with the state removes all elements of privacy, while also giving the institutions the ability to censor any and all transactions, regardless of whether they have a legitimate reason or not."

Increased government control over the monetary system goes hand-in-glove with the social score concept famously wielded by the Chinese Community Party, and rapidly being adopted in other nations, including America. Anything and everything that requires an exchange of currency can be monitored, and transactions can be denied for such things as firearms, meat, or other (currently) legal but politically incorrect purchases. Already the World Economic Forum is launching a coalition to reward people with "carbon credits" for using fewer resources. Digital currency makes this all possible.

The fact is, digital currency is being introduced for one reason, and one reason only: so it can be weaponized against political enemies. And, as Biden himself has made abundantly clear in the last few weeks, his political enemies include anyone and everyone who doesn't wholeheartedly support his growing reign of terror.

Digital currency will allow the government to seize assets at will. Forget those middle-of-the-night FBI raids; just click a button, and the victim has nothing. The mere threat of this possibility will be enough to bring all but the most die-hard rebels into line with the régime.

Catherine Austin Fitts, former assistant secretary of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, said in a recent interview: "If you can move every human into a digital concentration camp, empty their bank account any time you want, and tell them what they can and cannot spend money on, you've got complete control."

If you think the term "digital concentration camp" sounds extreme and over-the-top, think again. If the government decides to punish you, you're toast. You can't pay your power bill, so your electricity is shut off.

You can't pay your water bill, so your water is shut off. You can't buy gas, so you can't drive. You can't pay your rent or mortgage, so you're evicted. You can't pay your property taxes, so your (paid-for) home is seized. You can't buy food. Forget medical care; that's out of the question.

"When Biden Bucks are rolled out, many experts—myself included—believe they will begin an era of total government control and surveillance," says former CIA official Jim Rickards. "This is not hyperbole. This would dramatically expand the power and influence of the federal government—essentially

acting as a new type of 'spyware.' With Biden Bucks, the government will be able to force you to comply with its agenda. Because if you don't, they could turn off your money. This won't be like freezing a bank account, it will be so much easier."

The launch of this effort occurred in March with the signing of Executive Order 14067, which laughably claims (among much else), "Any future dollar payment system should be designed in a way that is consistent with United States priorities." Oh please. Digital currency is the antithesis of American priorities, and certainly goes against everything in our founding documents.

The creepy thing about digital currency is there is no evading it. It would permeate literally every aspect of every person's life, no matter how off-grid or remote they may be. Some say a barter society will spring up—and indeed, I expect that to happen almost instantly—but you can't barter for car insurance or property taxes, or other government requirements.

When this occurs, be sure to thank the people for whom the "Biden buck stops here."

If you and I knew that the Rapture was going to be on a certain day, 3-1/2 years from now, we would all set our alarm clocks and go to Vegas. Listen, the reason why we don't know the day and the hour is so we will be ready now and live a holy life now.

The timing of the rapture affects how we live today. Pre-tribulation believers fulfill the calling of Colossians 3, "If then we are raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God. Set your mind on the things above, not on the things of Earth."

The Rapture is our blessed hope and provides peace in this chaotic world, as 1 Corinthians 15 talks about. As Titus 2 says, "For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, teaching us that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age, looking for the blessed hope and the glorious appearing in the cloud of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ."

It also encourages holy living and the desire to fulfill our calling while we remain in this world.

Pastor Jack Hibbs, Calvary Chapel, Chino Hills, CA

I'm here to tell you, my friend, that you and I are like Lot in today's culture. We stand at the threshold of our homes as society pounds on our door with demands to give into immorality. We have the choice to make a stand or to compromise—often at the expense and to the detriment of our children.

Look no further than Florida for proof. Disney, which was once a champion of families, has descended to the point where it stands in opposition to a common-sense law that protects kindergarteners through third-graders from sexual indoctrination (whether gay or straight) in schools.

The company executives are actively and aggressively looking for ways to "add queerness" wherever possible to children's programming, thanks to a "not-at-all-secret gay agenda." They are removing the terms "ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls" from their theme parks to encourage the notion of gender fluidity.

In short, they are knocking on the door of your household with the intention of sexualizing your children and violating their innocence.

You have a choice to make a stand or give in to compromise. Imagine if we all had the backbone to say what Lot didn't: "No. Never. I am the protector of this household and all who enter this home. Take your perversion and get out of here!”

Jonathan Brentner, author

We see a foretaste of God’s heavenly glory in beautiful sunsets, the grandeur of snowcapped mountain tops, and through the beauty and wonder of nature in all its various forms. Last week, my wife Ruth and I hiked in a Wisconsin state park where the leaves had just begun to change colors; it was breathtakingly beautiful. God’s creation reflects His beauty, magnificence, and splendor, and for those paying attention, nature glorifies its Creator.

On the other hand, we will not see the glory of which Jesus spoke in John 17:24 until we are with Him in heaven. All the magnificent scenes in nature are but a sampling of the beauty that Christ desires to show us once we are physically present with Him. The full magnificence, splendor, and power of our Savior are not things we are currently capable of witnessing apart from our glorified bodies, which we will receive when Jesus appears to take us home (1 Corinthians 15:51-55).

Terry James, author

Personally, I believe the time for debate on this matter is past. It is time now to just offer the assurance of that soon to come exhilarating moment when Christ will say “Come up here!” (Revelation 4:1).

There are so many scriptural assurances of the pre-Tribulation Rapture that we could fill many articles with them. As a matter of fact, we have done just that on the Rapture Ready website.

I wish to mention only one Rapture factor here, because I believe it is the most reassuring of all truth in God’s telling His children that they are not appointed to His wrath. Here we interject the question proposed in our title: Where’s the Comfort? By that we ask: What comfort is there in the argument that Christians will go through the Tribulation?

Paul the apostle first assures us of this fact: “For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ” (1 Thessalonians 5:9). But, it is the next thought from the mind of God that should cause warm reassurance in the spiritual heart of every believer: “Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.” (1 Thessalonians 5:11).

Get it? We are to “comfort” ourselves, not wring our hands looking for these things to destroy us or to look for Antichrist. We are to be looking for our “blessed hope” (Titus 2:13).

Remembering Dr. Ed Hindson

Every year the faith community loses people who have impacted the world. Two years ago, we lost Holocaust survivor Anita Dittman whose testimony affected people around the world. Jan Markell wrote her biography some years ago—Trapped in Hitler's Hell: A Young Jewish Girl Discovers the Messiah's Faithfulness in the Midst of the Holocaust.

In 2022, our good friend Ed Hindson passed into glory. Ed served at Liberty University for almost 50 years. He was one of our most frequent radio guests and noted author of dozens of books. He spoke at our 2013 Understanding the Times conference in Minneapolis. Ed Hindson was one of Jan Markell's go-to sources for theological insight and solid biblical knowledge.

We carry several of his products. The most popular is found on page 20 of this magazine as well as in our online store—the DVD Understanding Revelation in 60 Minutes. We highly recommend this in that we are living at such a significant time in history, awaiting the shout and the trumpet.

YouTube Counterfeits

All of social media can become a den of thieves, with people impersonating others and even asking for money on behalf of legitimate ministries. The problem is most severe on YouTube. But we go to extensive work to provide a video version of our radio program so that you may see and retain much more content.

Well over 500 of our video radio programs have been stolen and are impersonating Olive Tree. How can you tell which channel is legitimate? By the number of subscribers. We have almost 183,000 YouTube subscribers. The thieves, and there are more than one, have just a few hundred.

You can also view the video version on our website under "Radio", on Rumble, on His Channel Christian TV, on our other social media platforms, and on Lightsource.

Visit Our Website!

www.olivetreeviews.org

We post daily headlines, other articles of interest, and feature a vast online store, plus years of archived radio programming. Sign up for our e-newsletter there which is sent 1-2 times a month and contains timely information that print cannot offer. You can also find a PDF of this magazine posted. Hundreds of thousands of folks visit each month. Stay ahead of the news and be inspired!
