Things I Never Thought I Would See

By Jan Markell

I'm back to my saying that "I never thought I'd see the day"—and you fill in the blank as to what. The list goes on and on. You know you have a mental list as well!

As a young adult, I could not have imagined the Western world celebrating every aberration imaginable. Now, we are told men can have babies. Little children are being mutilated as they supposedly change genders. America just celebrated "pride month" when we should have been using that time to repent for our depravity.

I didn't think I would see the day when most politicians would have their own agenda that will benefit them, at the expense of the country. And, that the majority of them prefer complete government control and care less about the will of the people, about freedom, or about liberty.

Could you have imagined artificial intelligence surpassing human intelligence in a few years? Could this be like the aberrations in the days of Noah, but upgraded thanks to technology?

I knew America had to decline to make way for global government, but I could never have imagined that I would be alive to see her ignominious implosion. Should the Lord tarry, the country could never survive her obscene debt and greedy corruption that your children will pay for. I personally doubt that the Lord will tarry! He has to be getting weary of this planet and plans to finish His eternal plan soon.

I never thought I would see the day when a U.S. president would be the laughingstock of the world. What are those around Mr. Biden thinking as the leader of the free world stumbles, in every sense of the word? What kind of corruption even allowed this to happen? Wouldn't those who care about him want to put a stop to this?

I could not have fathomed that the globalists would induce starvation on much of the world and intentionally put farmers out of business to save the earth and engineer the climate. What kind of lunacy is this? Perhaps this is a part of the end-time strong delusion. And, the sad fact is, we are literally worshipping the creation rather than the creator (Romans 1:25).

I never thought I would see the day when lockdowns would become a part of normal society! First it was Covid lockdowns. Now I am learning about climate lockdowns. I guess the mantra is, “you will go nowhere and be happy!” Who gave these nutty globalists the authority to ruin lives? Why are so few pushing back?

I didn't think I would experience such dynamic times, all predicted by the Bible, yet only a small percentage of churches will talk about this! And while many, thankfully, teach the Bible, they will not inform their people about the issues of the day that are earth shaking! As a result, the people cannot understand the times as did the sons of Issachar in I Chronicles 12.

Could you have imagined a time when a certain political party saw “faith as an unfortunate feature of a backward society”? It is faith in God that is the bedrock of every successful society!

I could go on for endless pages with further examples, sadly. The Bible is blunt that the last days would be perilous and filled with unruly and selfish people. It says society would be “given over” (Romans 1). We just didn't think it would be this bad.

They would think only of themselves (II Timothy 3:2). They would be always learning but never coming to a knowledge of truth (2 Timothy 3:7).

They would do what is right in their own eyes (Judges 21:25). They would be in favor of everything unnatural because they would be without natural affection (II Timothy 3:1-3).

Money would control people. Self would be exalted. Not even parents would get proper treatment. It's not a pretty picture. It's surely an upside-down world!

But, God placed you and me in it for such a time as this! We are here on assignment and not by accident. We can be the salt and light needed for our times! The followers of Jesus Christ are to shine no matter what the circumstances. Hang on a little longer. Your presence is needed! And it is the darkest before the dawn—the dawn being the glorious Rapture of the church when we leave this wicked planet behind!

This "Huddle" will take place in conjunction with the "Understanding the Times" one-night conference featuring Pastor Barry Stagner on October 5. See page 4.

YouTube Counterfeits

All of social media can become a den of thieves, with people impersonating others and even asking for money on behalf of legitimate ministries. The problem is most severe on YouTube. But, we go to extensive work to provide a video version of our radio program so that you may see and retain much more content.

Well over 500 of our video radio programs have been stolen and are impersonating Olive Tree. How can you tell which channel is legitimate? By the number of subscribers. We have almost 193,000 YouTube subscribers. The thieves, and there are more than one, have just a few hundred.

You can also view the video version on our website under "Radio", on Rumble, on His Channel Christian TV, on our other social media platforms, and on Lightsource.

Olive Tree Ministries Has an App!

It is available in the App Store for Apple devices and the Play Store for Android devices. Search for Olive Tree Ministries and look for our logo—the star/dove! The app will provide easy access to our radio programs. You can live stream our bi-monthly events, read our news headlines, and go straight to our social media channels. You will always have the proper YouTube channel.

Curtain Call: How Can You Not See It?

By Jan Markell

Author and commentator Jonathan Brentner wrote a provocative article titled, "How Can You Not See It?" He was asking the question, how can you not see the fulfilling of Bible prophecy wherever you look?

Is it biblical illiteracy, indifference, or busyness, that keeps the majority from acknowledging the obvious? Time is running out. Predicted events are exploding. Things are in decline. Even nature is screaming that Jesus is coming soon! All of creation must be set free, not just humans.

Most reading this magazine have seen things in their lifetime that are, quite frankly, astounding:

- The re-birth and prospering of the nation of Israel
- The rise of artificial intelligence
- The preparation of the coming digital currency
- The use of a pandemic to hasten global government
- The rise of Mark of the Beast technology
- The rise of apostasy in the church the last 60 years
- The death of discernment
- Talk of a third temple in Israel
- The scoffing of Bible prophecy

- A cancel culture that cancels Christians
- The exponential rise of evil
- The rise of anti-Semitism

The list could go on with another twenty bullet points!

A headline on the Drudge Report said it all: "Global Economy Struggles Amid Inflation, Pandemic Aftershocks, and War." The world's a mess.

All Set for the Antichrist

As Jonathan Brentner states, "Twenty-five years ago, it would have been impossible for the Antichrist to control commerce in the world in the way that we read in Revelation 13:16-18. He would have needed a massive army of devotees to do so.

"Today, with the advances in artificial intelligence, gigantic databases, and 5G technology, it will soon be possible for one person to set the parameters of buying and selling for everyone in the world. By the midpoint of the Tribulation, he will be able to control buying and selling worldwide with the flip of a switch."

The Silence of the Shepherds

I personally believe that the root of today's blindness to these facts is

the silence of the church. Some 30 years ago, our seminaries dropped eschatology from their class line-up and pastors have not been trained in things to come. What a tragedy! At such a time as this, the shepherds are not equipped.

Many pastors state they don't wish to take a "controversial" stand when it comes to last days' eschatology. Is it pre-Tribulation, mid or post? Is it Amillennial, Premillennial, or Postmillennial? And will the addition of these topics really grow a church or just divide it?? It might be better to set such topics aside and deal with day-to-day needs of a congregation and its hurting people.

Desperately Needed Hope!

But they have robbed them of the "blessed hope"! (Titus 2:13) How can pastors not see the signs of the times, and as a result, provide those in their charge with the hope they desperately need in these perilous times?

As Jonathan Brentner summarizes in his article, "We are living on borrowed time. God is sovereign, but from our perspective we see His patience with a nation and world gone mad. He's holding back the full explosion of evil and destruction that will happen at the beginning of the Day of the Lord."

He concludes, "I know that the majority of those reading this article agree with me, and the intent of my question is to reinforce your valid beliefs. It takes a purposeful ignorance of biblical prophecy not to recognize that the world, and especially the U.S., rests on the edge of a cliff."

You Have Eyes to See!

You can see the nearness of His return! Very few reading this would disagree. What a blessing that God has opened your eyes to this truth and to the lateness of the hour. You cannot be accused of being in ignorance! You devour all the issues and news of the day to keep up and to help you look up!

You are the righteous, eager remnant. May your numbers increase as we wind down the Church Age.

Terry James, author and commentator

Our Sodom-like society continues to rage toward the judgment-producing moment in which Jesus said He will be “revealed” (Luke 17: 28). There will be at that future time, the Lord foretold, things going on which will look exactly like things that were happening as the vexed Lot observed his surroundings in the doomed city of Sodom.

We won’t look again in-depth at all the other prophetic signs Jesus and the prophets foretold. Suffice it to say, as we always do, that all signs given in God’s prophetic Word are in a state of convergence. All are coming at this generation with increased frequency and intensity.

In consideration of the one signal Jesus gave, likening His future moment of Intervention into the perverted affairs of mankind to the time when Lot and his family were removed to Zoar, the similarity is, of course, striking.

I’m not certain that the people of Sodom had reached the point of parading in the streets in celebration of the homosexual lifestyle. I’m not sure they had a perennial LGBTQ Pride Month. But, if I were a gambling man, I would be placing my bet that these things were taking place not occasionally, but in never-ending fashion. I have no doubt that it was gay pride on steroids, as is said.

Tim Moore, Lamb & Lion Ministries

Charles Dickens captured the dichotomy of the world in which we live. At the same instant, it is both maddeningly reprobate, and yet reflective of the glory of God. We witness tremendous abominations at the same time that God reassures us that He has everything under control.

More pronounced today than even during the era Dickens wrote about, our world has become a cacophony of contradictions. Knowledge is accessible in volumes never before imagined, and yet wisdom is tragically illusive. Material prosperity and riches have raised our life expectancy and standard of living, and yet many people are plagued with a sense of perpetual jealousy and impending doom. This is the dual reality of our age.

The signs of the times are multiplying all around us. Some are so obvious that even the undiscerning can recognize them. Natural signs are increasing in frequency and intensity — although the Christ-shunning world is eager to chalk them up to global warming, climate change, or whatever the latest fear-mongering fad dictates.

Amir Tsarfati, author and Bible teacher

Every single person in my country's military, intelligence, and government knows that the commencement of a very big war with Israel is not a matter of if, but when. In the past, America has been the stabilizing power that has kept the dogs at bay. But now, what once was the most powerful nation on earth, is being led by an incredibly weak administration that is humiliatingly desperate to make a deal with Iran, seemingly at all costs.

If this new Iran deal goes through, instead of giving the US more influence in the region as they hope, it will essentially render America irrelevant in the Middle East. I love the US; it is like a second home to me. It breaks my heart to see what has become of this country that I have so admired and respected.

Soon, the Biden administration will roll out their terrible new Iran deal. Only a compromised and foolish Democrat-led government, along with their liberal, progressive EU buddies, will believe in it. The Israelis won't buy it. The Saudis won't buy it.

The Iranian regime will gladly sign it, but they won't hold to it. Israel, for the sake of its own survival, will end up having to act alone to stop Iran from going nuclear. And that's when it will all blow up.

Barry Stagner, Pastor, Calvary Chapel, Tustin, CA

There is never a day off from spiritual warfare. The enemy keeps coming and coming, relentlessly trying to wear us down, just like Delilah did with Samson. The devil attacks strengths and weaknesses alike; therefore, "let him who thinks he stands, take heed lest he fall" (1 Cor. 10:12).

Sadly, the mighty Samson let his guard down, and we know the end of his story. He became a spectacle for the world, put on display as a trophy of the enemy. Similarly, the enemy is going to attack the secret of your strength today, and every day, in hopes of making a mockery of your testimony. So be on guard—in both your strengths and your weaknesses!

Mark Hitchcock, Pastor, Faith Bible Church, Edmond, OK, author

Most of you know that the World Economic Forum was founded in 1971 by Klaus Schwab, who is the undisputed godfather of globalism.

The stated mission of the World Economic Forum is to shape global, regional, and industry agendas. Since 1971, Schwab and his fellow earthshaking comrades have convened each year to brainstorm concerning how to overtake existing national infrastructure and turn them into spokes of what we might call a global wheel, which feeds into a unified central world government. It's called the Davos agenda because that's where the World Economic Forum meets every year.

Sadly, the current administration in the United States deliberately refuses to enforce laws on our borders and even threatens states that attempt to enforce them. Why is that? Because ultimately, there's an agenda that's energized by Satan. It's a globalist agenda that's preparing the world for the Antichrist and his global governance. Of course, this is prophesied often in Scripture, Revelation 13 being the main chapter.

Global elites are intentional about accelerating their one-world agenda.

What's Up (in the Sky) with UFOs?

You have, no doubt, noted that UFOs are in the news. A supposed whistleblower who is a former intelligence official, David Grusch, caused headlines in early June with his assertion that the US had been collecting non-human crafts for "decades". He suggests America has whole or partial vehicles and their pilots.

"For almost ninety years, the United States and its allies have been recovering fragments of objects and exotic objects, damaged or intact vehicles," Grusch explained. "The analyses carried out have provided proof that these were non-human objects, particularly those discovered ninety years ago. The programs I'm talking about were dedicated to reverse engineering for military purposes. And that is unfortunately the main purpose."

Also, in early June, residents of Las Vegas said a UFO crashed and aliens wandered into their backyards! The police substantiated the story. The aliens were ten feet tall with huge eyes.

If these witnesses are really encountering aliens, they are actually dealing with demons. The actual encounter with aliens in Las Vegas was on May 1. That is Beltane, the second highest Satanic holiday. The demonic world right now is overactive, and particularly on their holidays! The UFOs are demonic manifestations that are appearing more as we near the Rapture.

Could all of this just be fruitful imaginations? Of course, but there are certainly end-time signs in the skies referred to in the Bible. And demonic activity is predicted to surge in the last days.

Note from Jan: I recently read an article by Scott Lothery, pastor and church planter, whom I have not met, that really encouraged me in our falling apart world. We're all tired of tragedies and they are everywhere. We need that eternal perspective! Scott summed that up in a few paragraphs. Our future is out of this world!

The good news about the Lord is that He has promised to return to earth to right all that is wrong with this world. He is not just interested in justice and purity. He is determined to usher in glory. The Apostle John saw a vision of the Lord doing just that and recorded it in Revelation 21. About this promise, Jesus said, "Behold, I am making all things new. Write this down for these words are trustworthy and true." (Revelation 21:5)

Jesus is going to make everything new. Forty days after His resurrection, He ascended into heaven. At an unknown time in the future, He will descend from heaven in the same form and in the same way that He left. After He returns, He will continue His work of making everything new by giving Christians new bodies, patterned after His resurrection body.

Whereas our current bodies are flawed, weak, natural, sinful, and perishable, our new bodies will be like His – complete, invulnerable, spiritual, holy, and immortal. With the same power He used to raise himself from the dead, He will raise you, Christian.

He's not going to enter your grave and perform CPR to reanimate your old body. He's going to transform your current one, whether it is alive or dead when He returns, into a glorified one.

Then, with the same power Jesus used to create the cosmos, He is going to create a new glorified world. Since the Scripture is silent on the scope of the change, we don't know if He plans to resurrect the entire universe, just the Milky Way, or simply our solar system. It is difficult to have certainty on how pervasive sin is and how thoroughly it has corrupted what God has made.

What we do know is that the world that we currently experience will be transformed, such that all the effects of original sin will be overcome. Jesus will eliminate the presence of sin, setting the creation itself free from its bondage to corruption. And, the results will be astounding. Disease will end and everlasting health will begin. Disabilities will be made permanently whole. Discord will give way to constant harmony. Decay will reverse into perpetual growth. Tranquility will replace disorder, and success will supplant disaster. Even death itself will die.

Revelation 21:4 describes His return in this way: "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

The Theft of God's Rainbow

By Jan Markell

Believe me, I would much rather write about the Lord's soon return than gay pride—or rather, gay depravity. God introduced the rainbow in Genesis 9. It was a part of a promise He made. A whole twisted movement hijacked it.

In America, the month of June is set aside to celebrate the gay lifestyle. But let's be honest: the Western culture demands the near-constant celebration of homosexuality every day and every month of every year. Throw in the now celebrated trans agenda, and the cultural decline is astounding. We are racing backward to the days of Noah.

What Must God Think of "Queer all Year"?

But June of 2023 saw dozens of major retailers betraying conservative and Christian customers as they catered to this cultural collapse. "Queer all year" was the theme of retail America. Target lost billions in sales due to boycotts and others followed in lockstep, more committed to an agenda than to corporate profits. We would eventually learn these retail outfits would be subsidized by globalist schemers.

Here is just a sampling of items offered to eager customers:

- Homosexual and trans clothing for three-month-olds
- Cookie rainbow houses for small children
- Pet gear, pet toys, and pet treats in rainbow colors
- Pet chew toys that are guaranteed to turn a dog or cat gay
- Rainbow jewelry in 14k gold
- Pride-themed eyewear
- Multi-colored pride cake mixes
- Baby "always-proud" bibs
- Special pride boxes of Pop-Tarts targeting youth on Instagram

Jesus Had Grace But Spoke Truth

Our Romans 1 culture celebrates this and as Christians, we must respond with grace, love, and kindness to every person trapped in the deadly blindness of the LGBTQ lifestyle. But, many once-solid churches and denominations are going along to get along and will not speak out about the biblical warnings. Jesus represented grace and truth.

There is no way to be kind and gracious while refusing to tell people the truth that the way of sin is the way of death (Luke 13:5). The path of sexual immorality that our culture insists is so wonderful is actually a path to destruction.

God's Throne and a Rainbow!

John sees a glorious throne of God surrounded by a rainbow (Revelation 4:3). That reminds us that the rainbow belongs to God, not a sinful sexual culture. God is so committed to the salvation of lost men and women that you can't even gaze at His throne without seeing a shining symbol of redemption—the rainbow.

God, who created the rainbow and is, at this moment surrounded by one, will bring his people into a perfect and sinless world surrounded with glory, wonder, and rainbows. The rainbow is God's. He is going to take it back. The truth is, he really never lost it. It is our job to point a confused culture to God and a pure life.

It's All About ESG Scores!

Globalist outfits like Black Rock have promised corporations an impressive ESG (environmental, social, governance) score if they will cooperate in today's dark agendas. They can be paid billions by these outfits that compensate for customers abandoning them!

God Has Said "Enough"

What did you think the last days would look like since we're in the midst of them. Man's sinful activity is begging for God to send His son to rescue His Bride from the depravity. It is sooner than you think!

Where Will You Spend Eternity?

Olive Tree Ministries reports on news and information that is troubling and disconcerting. We often tell the inconvenient truth and we always define issues in light of the Bible. Our times are defined by the lateness of the hour biblically speaking. We want to ensure that our followers know where they will be spending eternity because eternity in the wrong place is unthinkable. Heaven or hell are the options.

The Bible says all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). The Bible also says that the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:23).

If you don't know Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, the Bible says that today is the day of salvation (Acts 28). Turn from your sinful ways. "All who call on the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ will be saved (Romans 10:13).

If you have made a decision for Christ today, feel free to call our office. If you would like to pray a prayer of salvation with an Olive Tree staff person, you may also call 763-559-4444 CST.
