A Preview of Things to Come

By Jan Markell

All of us were heartbroken at the images coming out of Maui in early August. Everyone said it was like the end of the world. It was apocalyptic. The scenes remind us of images from WWII when dozens of cities looked like Lahaina, Maui.

But this wasn't a war time ordeal. This was a peaceful day in paradise that was interrupted by the unthinkable. A wildfire of suspicious origin violently ended the lives of hundreds, and potentially thousands, of people whose day started like any other and ended in a hellish ordeal. We see why the Bible says, "Today is the day of salvation." (2 Corinthians 6:2) Life can end abruptly and unexpectedly. No one is promised a tomorrow.

The word "apocalyptic" is being used all over the world as the planet groans, awaiting the liberation of Jesus Christ when He will set it free.

Elsewhere in Europe, a month of rain fell on parts of Slovenia in a single day. China experienced devastating floods. Crops throughout the region were completely wiped out, and the property damage that has been done is off the charts. Devastating heat has tormented millions of people around the world. Hail pounded Germany. Fires in Portugal created an "apocalyptic inferno."

This, and much more, as we are in a run-up to the Rapture—the ultimate apocalyptic event.

And divine judgment must also be considered as we see reprobate activity. "Go Gay Hawaii" welcomes everyone to gay-friendly Maui on a website built for just such promotion.

The website says, "The Maui gay community is substantial and accepting. There are numerous LGBT and gay-friendly businesses on the island, exclusive Maui gay resorts and plenty to see, do and experience on this magical island. Maui Gay Pride is a staple event taking place each year around the first weekend in October."

The promotion continues, "In 2011, when Hawaii Governor Neil

Abercrombie signed legislation legalizing gay marriage in Hawaii, he sealed the State's fate as one of the top gay destinations in the world. We welcome you to plan your Maui gay vacation or wedding today!"

And interestingly enough, about the only structure in Lahaina not destroyed was a church, though it was not a gospel preaching church.

During the seven-year Tribulation, every city and nation will look like Maui. Can you imagine? I cannot. The city of Lahaina is a preview of things to come. The earth will reel from earthquakes, meteor showers and asteroids, stars falling from heaven, and the moving of mountains. One-third of the trees will burn up.

The sun will go dark and the moon will turn to blood.

Mankind will hide in caves and rocks and plead, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! For the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?" (Rev. 6:12-17).

When things are at their worst, Christ will suddenly appear on planet Earth during His second coming or "no flesh would be saved." (Matthew 24:22)

God is warning the unbelieving world about what is coming. Billions perish during that unprecedented time, and modern-day disasters are a pale foretelling of things to come.

If you have Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior of your life, none of this is of concern. Believers escape the wrath to come in the Tribulation. (Rev. 3:10) But all of us have loved ones who know little about God's plan of the ages. They have never been told about eternal life. They are unaware that God's wrath is not destined for true believers—unless you tell them. And, unless you outline the plan of salvation to them.

Do so today.

The Pastor's Huddle

Olive Tree Ministries and Mark Henry Ministries have teamed up to teach eschatology to lead pastors. Don't miss five two-hour sessions October 4-6, 2023, with our guest teacher Dr. Mike Powell, a pastor of 41 years, college professor, and teacher around the world.

Topic: Dispensational Hermeneutics Applied to Daniel and Revelation - Part 2.

We are happy to offer this free-of-charge as a gift to bless pastors! (NOTE: Pastors are responsible for travel, hotel, car, and meals.) Scholarships are available, but limited. Spots are filling up fast, so register now. Go to MarkHenryMinistries.com and click on "Pastors Huddle" tab at the top of the page.

This "Huddle" will take place in conjunction with the "Understanding the Times" one-night conference featuring Pastor Barry Stagner on October 5. See page 4.

Where Will You Spend Eternity?

Olive Tree Ministries reports on news and information that is troubling and disconcerting. We often tell the inconvenient truth, and we always define issues in light of the Bible. Our times are defined by the lateness of the hour, biblically speaking. We want to ensure that our followers know where they will be spending eternity, because eternity in the wrong place is unthinkable. Heaven or hell are the options.

The Bible says all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). The Bible also says that the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:23).

If you don't know Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, the Bible says that today is the day of salvation (Acts 28). Turn from your sinful ways. "All who call on the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ will be saved (Romans 10:13).

If you have made a decision for Christ today, feel free to call our office. If you would like to pray a prayer of salvation with an Olive Tree staff person, you may also call 763-559-4444 CST.

YouTube Counterfeits

All of social media can become a den of thieves, with people impersonating others and even asking for money on behalf of legitimate ministries. The problem is most severe on YouTube. But, we go to extensive work to provide a video version of our radio program so that you may see and retain much more content.

Well over 500 of our video radio programs have been stolen and are impersonating Olive Tree. How can you tell which channel is legitimate? By the number of subscribers. We have almost 200,000 YouTube subscribers. The thieves, and there are more than one, have just a few hundred.

You can also view the video version on our website under “Radio”, on Rumble, on His Channel Christian TV, on our other social media platforms, and on Lightsource.

Tim Moore, Director, Lamb & Lion Ministry

Satan is always trying to deceive, so UFOs could well be demonic apparitions. But, to be honest, even though I don't know what these objects are exactly, I figure that there's probably a logical explanation. Many of our secret hi-tech devices are being utilized by our government, not to mention enemy and foreign governments. To protect our secret hi-tech from being stolen, our government would naturally not be transparent about them or risk espionage.

I find it interesting what the Bible says in Ephesians 6:12, "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places." This verse isn't denoting spirits in Heaven, but in the heavens, meaning the sky. From this verse we learn that the demonic world, though unseen to us, can exist in the sky as well as dwell in the high places, meaning the mountains.

Since these disembodied spirits dwell in the air, whether they're manifesting themselves as unidentified flying objects that can be seen, or we now possess just the right modern technology to see them, their purpose seems to be for distraction. Why the distraction then? It's part of the end-time deception that Satan is using to deceive the world. He's long been planning on ruling and reigning the world through the Antichrist and so needs to create a crisis. All this UFO talk very well could be preparing the world for the Antichrist to come and as a deception for the church's disappearance in the Rapture.

Amir Tsarfati, Behold Israel, author, teacher

It feels as if things could not get any worse. So, what do we do in times such as these? Do we mope or hang our heads in depression? Do we run and hide from the world in safe little Christian enclaves?

No, our call is to engage with the world. Our mission as light in the darkness has not ended. In fact, it is greater now than it has ever been as the time of end draws near.

So, as you go about your mission, watch where you're going, keep looking up, and wake up each day with this passage on your mind: "For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, teaching us that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age, looking for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself His own special people, zealous for good works.” (Titus 2:11-14)

commentator

Belief in hell and the devil just sank to new lows. A new poll from Gallup reveals that more Americans reject biblical truth and spiritual reality apparently, to conveniently ignore any consequences for how they live their lives.

It may not be surprising fewer and fewer people believe in God, angels, heaven, hell, and the devil. The recent poll finds they are down to new lows.

These drops in percentage may not seem significant or dramatic, but the outright darkness, deception, delusion, and depravity in America coincides with the declining numbers.

Jonathan Brentner, author

We live in perilous times on steroids. Paul’s description of the last days in 2 Timothy 3:1-5 has never been more relevant or posed a greater threat to our livelihood.

In addition to the rapid downward spiral of common decency around us, the coming kingdom of the Antichrist is taking shape before our eyes with an ever-increasing velocity and deadly fierceness. The technology that will enable the lawless one to control all buying and selling (Revelation 13:16-18) is already here, and it appears to be far more enslaving than we ever imagined.

The awareness that the world is rapidly moving toward the events described in Revelation 6 and 13 gives all of us hope because it signals the nearness of Jesus’ appearing to take us home. Such an anticipation relieves any fears that might arise from the deadly perils around us and encourages us to press forward in serving our Lord.

In the meantime, however, we sometimes wonder aloud, “How much longer can it be before our Savior comes for us?”

The Importance of the Gospel

By Jan Markell

Now that even more details have been released as it concerns the tragic Maui fires, I am compelled to write about the gospel. Why? Because if more Hawaiians knew the gospel, they would run from their destructive pagan gods. Between the paganism of some Hawaiian leaders and their leftist/woke ideology, people needlessly died.

They didn't turn the water on, things burned, and they told landowners they couldn't use water to fight the fires while the fires were still small. Is it because they believed that water was sacred and we must worship the water?

Gov. Josh Green stated, "There's been a great deal of water conflict on Maui for many years. People have been fighting against the release of water to fight fires."

Pagan Hawaiian culture believes we must worship water, not life. This is not climate change, not global warming, not carbon emissions. This is left-wing ideologues with pagan beliefs that allowed the island to burn. There is blood on the hands of the water worshippers. Christianity broke us free of pagan slavery, superstition, and reckless ideology.

Please share the gospel!

Apocalyptic Anticipation

By Jan Markell

I am revisiting an article I wrote in 2018 which is even more pertinent today. I asked back then, haven't we waited long enough for Christ's return? Five years later, I am still weary of this groaning planet, of the sick antics of today's Left, of watching disturbing events from around the world, and of scoffers who mock my beliefs as though I'm an outdated Neanderthal.

So, I'm bringing back some of those musings because they're more intense here in late 2023.

The malady goes by many names: End-time weariness; Rapture fatigue; Rapture-watch burn-out. The scoffers and skeptics are gaining too much territory and too many followers. The fact that the King is coming is boring and just old news.

What Hal Lindsey wrote in 1969 in his classic, "The Late-Great Planet Earth", in the eyes of many, did not come to pass. Thus, there is a collective so-what sigh. The pulpits marginalize or ignore this glorious good news. How much longer can I look up with expectation?

Late-Great Burn-Out?

Recently, I read a revealing article

in The Guardian that further mocks those with an end-time view and reinforces the growing skepticism. This article suggests:

Authors like Tim LaHaye and Hal Lindsey prophesied a lot of things that have not come to pass. Haven't you Rapture-watchers waited long enough? Perhaps it's time to move on from this message. (Never mind that a ton of things they predicted HAVE come to pass.)

Larry Norman told us in his 1970s song, "I Wish We'd All Been Ready," that life was filled with guns and war and everyone gets trampled on the floor, but a generation later, that's still happening. It's far worse today. A generation later, the world is groaning even more! We've waited long enough and it's time to change the channel.

Hal Lindsey told us that 1988 was a key year as that was 40 years since Israel's re-birth. He never said he was targeting that year for the Rapture, but he encouraged us to anticipate His soon return surrounding that 1988 date. We're still anticipating years later, but alas, no trumpet or shout to date!

These are just three talking points of

The Guardian article.

To be frank, there is now a "we've been through this all before" mindset, rather than apocalyptic anticipation. Words of warning are falling on deaf ears. I now see way too much end-time weariness and left behind indifference. The article in The Guardian suggests all this and more, but the Bible tells us to expect this (II Peter 3:4).

The Bashers and Scoffers

Then came the bashers who are respected in some circles—just not mine. Hank Hanegraaff said there was no Rapture to be found in the Bible. Who knew? Well, he's no Bible Answer Man to me, but at one time, he had a sizable audience whom he greatly influenced. In 2017, he called me out on air as one of the biggest troublemakers in evangelical leadership and said that I engage in "script-torture". Maybe I should be honored.

Frankly, the line-up of bashers and scoffers is so long I need a book to document them properly, so I am not dwelling on them. Rick Warren calling eschatology "a distraction" did not help. Legions on the religious left, including Brian McLaren, Tony

OLIVETREE MINISTRIES

Apocalyptic Anticipation

Campolo, Rob Bell, and more--have denigrated this glorious good news for two decades. Social justice is of far greater interest to them.

Déjà vu All Over Again

Stunning events are breaking daily. We are on the cusp of digital money. Russia, who is likely Gog from the land of Magog, is stirring and roaring. Mark of the Beast technology is staring us in the face. The spirit of the Antichrist is manifesting globally. And yet many suggest this is just déjà vu all over again! You have talked about such things for decades. We're weary of your warnings!

So, the fact that things are all coming together excites only a tiny remnant, who will never grow weary of keeping their eyes on the sky! If you are among them, hang in there. He is coming soon. As things continue to deteriorate, we may be left with only one hope—the blessed hope.

It's better to sound the warnings than have multitudes come to us and ask us, "Why didn't you warn us of all of this and of all of the things to come?"

Now You Can Summon Up the Demons!

By Jan Markell

Our times are not just strange, they are dangerous, and offer eternal consequences on an hourly basis. And if you live in my liberal home state of Minnesota, there are constant challenges.

Many think our Walker Art Center is a cultural icon to be proud of, so hold on! They are now holding pagan rituals for families that summon up the demons. You read that right. I could never make this up.

Families are invited to create a vessel to trap the demon that knows them best and then participate in a playful ceremony to summon and befriend their demon. Yes, I said families, so that means children are targeted here.

"Demons have a bad reputation, but maybe we're just not very good at getting to know them," an event description reads. "After designing your trap, Lilit the Empathic Demon will come from the dark side of the moon to lead you in locating your feelings using ancient Babylonian techniques," the website explains.

"This collective and playful demon summoning session will conclude with a somatic movement meditation, designed to help you befriend your shadows."

Pictured in the promotion of this outrageous occult extravaganza are

children ages 2-3-4. This is outright indoctrination into the dark arts. The young are already blitzed by Hollywood and the music industry, but now an art center has tapped into their inner demons, trying to market them to unsuspecting parents and children.

Hundreds of parents will naively participate! They let their kids participate in Halloween, so now, we've moved one step higher to teach them how to summon demons. The Bible says in II Timothy 3:13 that "evil will wax worse and worse", and this is just one manifestation of this in these last days.

The Walker Art Center has received millions of dollars in taxpayer funds through Minnesota's Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund, which routinely funds projects with a left-wing agenda, and obviously, a Godless agenda.

If we aren't constantly on guard for the wiles of the devil, he will find a way to move into your life and those you love.

Put on the full armor of God so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. (Ephesians 6:11-12)

Looking Up While Locking Down

By Terry James

There is a sense among readers that the next proverbial shoe is about to drop—i.e., something big is about to happen, or break, or however one wishes to put it.

With all the movement in the world that, from the spiritual perspective, assaults morality every day, comes anxiety I hear expressed consistently. It goes something like: “I just hope the Rapture happens before they are able to put us all in prison, or worse.”

The anxiety comes across in different phrasing, but the angst is there and growing. And with all that’s going on, one can’t disagree totally that such worry isn’t somewhat warranted.

My own intention is to steer away from getting absorbed in the political process. I’ve gotten too immersed in such “hope” before and now realize that it isn’t earthly politics, but heavenly prophetic truth, we should base our hope on. Hope in the future, yes, but hope in the near time as well.

In looking at the political situation, however, we see our nation coming apart at the seams. We are losing the constitutional republic that Benjamin Franklin once said we now had—if we could keep it. The way this presidential administration and its Department of Justice are using their officialdom to destroy people in order to accomplish their absolute rule is, indeed, troubling, if not terrifying.

And, now there is more and more talk that a new pandemic is on the way. It is as if we are being prepared through that same system of propaganda to expect pestilence even more virulent than the COVID so-called pandemic. That was almost certainly a test to check the degree of compliance that could be achieved, both by Americans and the rest of the world. Sadly, it looks to have been successful in many ways.

The powers that be of Ephesians 6:12—both demonic and human minions—have changed this country and other nations, I believe, in ways that have set in place a pathway for Satan to bring his man of sin to power.

The minions, in that regard, are using the climate-change lie to further bring about the lockdown of humanity they want, as the World Economic Forum (WEF) and other agencies of the Luciferian sort, continue to move toward implementing their blueprint as expressed in the Agenda 30 plans.

This planning is somewhat exposed in the following. Covid was just the test run for what the WHO is planning for next time. The WEF, run by Klaus Schwab, is also involved with spearheading the scheme, which the Daily Exposé describes as follows:

“WHO’s ‘Pandemic Treaty’ will not

only be concerned with pandemics. It introduces globally the 'One Health' ideology. The concept recognizes the interdependence of human and animal health and the connection with the environment."

As stated before, those who are spiritually attuned to what is taking place often state they hope the Rapture occurs before we're all placed in lockdown—and not just in the sense of being sequestered in our homes. There is coming a time when one will come on the scene who is worse than Adolf Hitler and his Nazi terrors.

But we know one thing we can take comfort from. God has not appointed us to that time—the seven years of Tribulation when the entire world will be locked down in the most heinous way.

We are to be looking up—looking up for our “blessed hope” (Titus 2:13).

Pray for the Prophecy Team!

The prophecy team of Pastor Billy Crone, Pastor Tom Hughes, Pastor Brandon Holthaus, Mondo Gonzales, and our own Ken Mikle, will visit Europe in September. For one week, they will teach to enthusiastic audiences in three European destinations!

Keep the crew in prayer the last week of September as they prepare and travel September 22 – 30. Pray for attendees of the conference activity—some coming from the U.S. If unbelievers will attend, pray that they are led to realize the lateness of the hour and that they would surrender their lives to Jesus Christ while there is yet time!
