Under Siege!
By Jan Markell

You might be wondering, what is being besieged? Our borders? Yes. Common sense values? For sure. How about proper theology? Absolutely. We are besieged like never before, but then, this was predicted! There would be a vast “falling away” from the faith. (2 Thessalonians 2)

But I think that this issue goes deeper. Let me explain.

I have watched Bible prophecy attacked, scorned, mocked, criticized, and improperly taught for a lot of years. There has been overwhelming confusion about the last days. Again, that is predicted, so no surprise. (II Peter 3:3 – 7)

In many denominations, it is taught egregiously wrong. Too many churches have all the end-time glory going towards the church (Dominion Theology.)

Others say that all prophecy happened in 70 AD (Preterism). Who knew? We missed it! We need to look at eschatology in a rear-view mirror! What strange theology!

A significant number teach that believers go through the Tribulation, even though we are promised to be spared from the wrath to come. (I Thessalonians 1:10; Revelation 3:10)

Preterist Gary DeMar accused me of holding a “hysteria conference” some years ago. Dr. Ron Rhodes and Dr. Mark Hitchcock—two of the most respected prophecy teachers to date—were going to lead my audience into error and confusion.

We are accused of “checking out.” Because we’re going to be taken out, we don’t run for office or try to make a difference in our confused world. Nothing could be further from the truth! The fact that time is short spurs us on to the share the gospel.

Author Joel Richardson scolds pastors who are not preparing their flock to meet the Antichrist, even though there is not one Bible reference about believers preparing for anything other than the “blessed hope.” (Titus 2:13)

And even though the writers of the Bible and the early church fathers taught about the Rapture of the church, we are lectured regularly that this theology was founded by John Nelson Darby in 1830! This misrepresentation is almost the most maddening!

What’s worse, he got it from some visionary woman—very troubled—named Margaret McDonald. This

Under Siege!

theological silliness will likely never go away! I wish these folks would read their Bibles and see the truth.

Just as tragic are the many denominations and pulpits that are totally silent on the glorious news that the King is coming! People write to my ministry telling me that they have visited “every prospective church in town”, and not one will address eschatology! For that matter, most won’t address current events, Israel, politics, and other issues of relevance either.

Students of Bible prophecy, then, must tap into ministries and pastors who WILL discuss the topic, in that we are in a race towards the end of the Church Age with its accompanying signs of the times. Somebody get excited about these signs, please!

Here is a revealing e-mail from Terry: “Recently, my pastor announced his series on Matthew. I was front and center, waiting for his exposition of Matthew 24. Surely, now he would address prophecy!

“Sadly, he promptly announced that ‘prophecy conferences’ will instill fear and confusion, so stay away! His handling of Matthew 24 revealed a safe, ear tickling style and explanation of each verse. His closing comment was, as you said, Jan. There are no stunning events today; there is nothing new here. Nothing new at all. Time to move on.

His conclusion: Anything going on today has always been going on.”

If I had just $1 for every similar e-mail, letter, and call, I would be living in a mansion in Malibu.

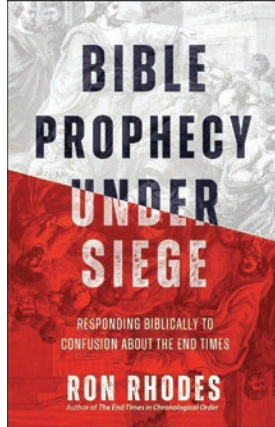

To add insult to injury, churches like this marginalized Israel during her second Holocaust on October 7, 2023. They did not bring the tragedy up in a church service, a prayer meeting, a newsletter, or even a time of announcements! It’s like it never happened!

I could go on and on but you get the point. Bible prophecy is under siege. So, I was beyond overjoyed to learn that Dr. Ron Rhodes has a new book on this very topic: Bible Prophecy Under Siege: Responding Biblically to Confusion About the End Times. And he covers all the bases.

He handles it in an easy-to-understand manner and certainly does not imply that those who are waiting for His appearing are a part of any Rapture Rescue Cult!

I know you will enjoy Ron’s latest. Find details on page 19, or call my office.

Even Amid the World's Insanity, God is at Work

By Amir Tsarfati

The battle rages in the south of Israel. The storm clouds of war build in the north. The political opposition to Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu is back at it, trying to remove him from office.

A crazy president in Brazil is comparing Israel to Hitler's Germany. Ignorant mobs the world over are chanting their slogans of love for the perpetrators of the October 7 massacre, while vehemently condemning the Israeli victims.

Christians are regularly being slaughtered by Islamists in Western Africa, but the press is ignoring it. Iran missed a turn somewhere and found themselves at the South Pole, so they decided to lay claim to it.

Another Putin critic, healthy and only 47-years-old, somehow managed to die in prison.

And the president of the most powerful nation in the world, well, let's just say it appears he may be slightly past his prime.

People, this is the crazy world we are living in!

But through it all, we know that God is in control, and that is why there are great things happening, too. You should see the number of pictures I receive from all over the world of churches, community groups, school classes, and families, all waving their Israeli flags and sending messages of love and support.

There are pro-Israel rallies and marches in many areas of the world. The new Argentine president has been very supportive of Israel, and the mainland European country that has given us the most love has been Germany, of all places!

While the U.S. is turning into a political morass for us, they continue to send arms and much-needed munitions, particularly for our missile defense systems.

Israel has established a land route to bypass the Houthi blockade of the Red Sea that is bringing us supplies from India via the UAE, Saudi Arabia, and Jordan. And Israel is forging deeper friendships with most of the Gulf States, as well as very quietly, the family of Saud in Riyadh.

Even amid this world's insanity, God is at work. He loves His nation, and He loves His people the world over. It is that truth of God's hand on His children that comforted me and my family as we sent my number three child, a son, off this week for his mandatory military service.

For the next three years, he will serve in the IDF, and we pray that the second and third year of his stint will be much less tumultuous than this first. Once again I say, our God is in control. Hallelujah and amen!

(Amir Tsarfati runs our sister ministry Behold Israel out of Israel. He has been at five of our prophecy conferences near Minneapolis. We carry many of his books.)

We Can Only Tolerate Looking Around If We Also Look Up

By Jan Markell

Our times can be trying. One hesitates to even tune into the latest Internet or cable news program and watch the updated saga of suffering. They are endless and brutal. Sure, we were warned. Those last days were to be "perilous times." But who knew? Who could have warned us about the heartbreaking details? And modern technology and communications bring it all home to us in real time.

A weariness has set in as the weight of the world's sin presses down so heavily that it is harder and harder to keep going. We feel like we are climbing a steep mountain with a heavy load. Up is down, black is white, evil is good. Political correctness will eventually destroy the planet. We're tired of the Keystone Kops running the show in nearly every capital of the world, starting with Washington D.C.

Those of us anticipating Christ's return have a great advantage. We listen for a trumpet in the midst of the carnage. If we listen carefully, we think we hear the hoof beats of the four horsemen in the distance. The end is near is not a saying on a sandwich board worn by some homeless person marching down Main Street. Rather, it is the hope of the believer. Most people call it the Rapture. And no, it's not an escape hatch.

"And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth the distress of nations, with great perplexity, over the sea and the roaring of the waves." Luke 21:25

But if you believe this, one Christian outfit calls us "zombie Christians." The magazine Christian Today is Christian, but with a Leftist bent. It has more of an ecological agenda than a spiritual agenda, and their version of the world ending is because we're killing the planet. The apocalypse to them is climate change. I'm quoting a few paragraphs from an article they published in 2015:

"It's easy to point a finger at the

fundamentalist fringe who have been mass marketing the apocalypse through films like 'A Thief in the Night' and 'Left Behind.' These are based on a weakly-constructed theology of a Rapture where believers are beamed up to Heaven to avoid catastrophes awaiting the planet."

The magazine continues, "Their

Sure. Bring it on. Heaven, that is. In the meantime, tell me more about this good news. We can only tolerate looking around if we also look up. The Bible says the world will only have "distress with perplexity" as we enter the end-of-days. (Luke 21:28) That means our headlines won't be getting better this side of Heaven.

Did you see the recent fire images from Texas in late February, or the California flooding before that?

and the hope*

theological version is called Premillennialism. You don't have to live in the Bible belt to be affected by this way of thinking. Many of us started our Christian journey with a version of the gospel message that emphasizes escapist eschatology. Sadly, with the best intentions, Christians have tended to deliver an altered and edited gospel that is robbed of its scale and supremacy, producing zombie Christians that are merely souls waiting for Heaven."

of Heaven, what other options are there?

Yet, as I referenced in my opening article, pastors are avoiding this good news! The reasons require another article to examine, point-by-point. Author Terry James comments on this by writing,

"Despite the fact that there are those who are overly speculative in their views of Bible prophecy, the following must be said. To the pastors of America who claim the Bible as the inspired, inerrant Word of the Living God but callously ignore its prophetic content — be forewarned.

We Can Only Tolerate Looking Around If We Also Look Up

“Your excuses/arguments won’t stand the test of the Bema — the Judgment Seat of Christ. You will be held accountable by the very Lord you proclaim you love so much — the same Lord about whom the angel told John: ‘for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.’” (Revelation 19:10)

Terry James says, “That same Jesus gave us the Olivet Discourse, during which He laid out general and specific things to come. The Gospel accounts give Christ’s commandment of what to do about the many prophesied things He had just foretold: “And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.” (Mark 13:37)

“Prophecy makes up at least 27% of the Bible. Half of that 27% has been fulfilled, with half yet to be fulfilled. Anyone with spiritual ears to hear, and spiritual eyes to see, is capable of following the Lord’s command: ‘And when you see these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.’” (Luke 21:28)

“Certainly, if God calls people to be pastors-shepherds of His flock — He equips them to feed the flock His whole Word, not just parts the pastor selects as important, while summarily dismissing the other parts of God’s Word.”

The author concludes, “The world is in an end-times rage. The seas and waves of humanity are roaring with distress and perplexity. Violence fills the whole earth. Israel stands alone in the global spotlight as the most hated nation on the planet. The world is in economic chaos, headed for total collapse. All the while, technology is progressing geometrically in ways that will one day provide earth’s last tyrant with the satanically-endowed ability to enslave most all people on this fallen sphere.”

Many Christians want to understand the end-time rage the world is in if it helps them to better keep an eye on the sky. If we are “zombies” as that magazine states, we are proud of it. We are not ashamed to say we can’t wait for Heaven.

The King is, indeed, coming. Somebody get very excited about it. Thankfully, this world is not our home.

Coming Up: The Pastor's Huddle!

We have our third "Pastor's Huddle" June 4-5-6, co-ordinated by our own Pastor Josh Schwartz, in cooperation with Mark Henry Ministries. There is no charge for the conference but travel expense is up to you, as are hotel accommodations. Meals are provided!

Call Pastor Josh at 763-559-4444, or e-mail him: josh@olivetreeviews.org.

WORTH QUOTING

Dr. David Jeremiah

The Rapture can change our life; it is a source of personal comfort and hope. Paul wrote to the Thessalonians about it to ease their concerns about their departed loved ones. Death is not final.

The resurrection of believers who have died will reverse the effects of death. All who have lost loved ones to the sting of death can be comforted in the knowledge that they will see them again.

But it is also a source of strength. Jesus promised His disciples, on the night He was arrested, that He would return for them (John 14:1-3).

It is no wonder that Paul told the Thessalonians to comfort themselves with the truth concerning the Rapture (1 Thessalonians 4:18).

Dr. Mark Hitchcock

We're not currently in a World War, but we can say accurately that our world is at war.

Just yesterday, while reading the newspaper, all the global hotspots and flash points that exist today struck me—article after article about all the places where there are ongoing wars, conflicts, and rumors of wars. It's not just in the newspapers; you see it online and on all the cable news channels 24/7.

The New York Post reported this week, "Germany Is Preparing for Russia to Start World War III, Leaked Plan Reveals."

Europe is preparing for the Russian President Vladimir Putin to expand his country's war in Ukraine and attack NATO ally countries next year, leaked [classified military] documents [from the German Ministry of Defense] reveal, NY Post detailed. The potential scenario outlines how Russia could start waging war in the Baltics by July.

Let me remind you: Jesus said, “ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars,” but He follows it with these words, “See that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.”

Jesus told us this was coming, but He said don’t be alarmed. He wanted us to know this so that we could be aware, alert, anticipating the Rapture, and living our life in light of that day. I hope that’s what you’re doing as we await the coming of Jesus Christ.

Tim Moore, CEO Lamb & Lion Ministries

We often tell people that Israel is about the size of New Jersey. A better reference might be the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, both in size and in population. Compared even to Israel, Gaza is tiny—just over 17 square miles. (By comparison, Manhattan is almost 23 square miles.)

In every nation where Jews and Muslims have immigrated, protests and riots have ensued in recent weeks. What began as an initial outpouring of support for Israel and solidarity with the Jewish people, quickly turned into anti-

Semitic outrage. And in places where sizeable Muslim populations are located, the rage of Hamas has been echoed in the frenzy of its unapologetic supporters and their fellow travelers.

Even here in America, security experts have warned that terrorist sleeper cells, Palestinian agitators, and radicalized individuals are poised to spark their own Intifada (violent uprising). Unlike past wars that largely took place “over there” in distant lands, the war on Jews and those who support the Jewish state will ensue wherever masses stoked to hate God’s chosen people live.

Regardless of the turmoil that lies ahead, we can be certain that the satanic effort to destroy Israel will fail. God promised to: “assemble the banished ones of Israel, and [gather] the scattered of Judah from the four corners of the earth” (Isaiah 11:12).

And having regathered them, He promised, “I will also plant them on their own land, and they will not again be rooted out from their land which I have given them” (Amos 9:15).

Pastor Mark Henry, Co-Host Understanding the Times Conferences

A study that was recently published showed that 20% of our population between the ages of 18 and 29 believe that the Holocaust never happened and that it's all mythology. Another roughly 23% of that same demographic believes it's "exaggerated."

OLIVETREEMINISTRIES

Friends, it's not exaggerated. Satan wants us to believe it never happened.

Jesus said there's going to be another holocaust that's coming, which is even worse, and that's why we need to learn the lessons of history and be courageous. You and I need to make decisions today about how we're going to live as things unfold. Lawlessness is unfolding. The contempt for the Jews is unfolding. The decisions we make today matter as we go forward.

You and I need to be thinking farther down the road, and following the example of people like the Ten Boom family. Because of their commitment to Jesus Christ and realizing the Messiah and the Bible came through the Jewish people, this one family rescued 800 Jews before they themselves went into concentration camps. Most of the family died except Corrie Ten Boom.

Those are the kinds of Christians that we need to be in the midst of a world that is becoming filled with contempt and hate for good, righteousness, truth, the Jewish people, and everything that God loves. Why? Because Satan is a "roaring lion seeking whom he may devour" (1 Peter 5:8).

Visit Our Prayer Wall

Olive Tree Ministries recognizes that we have moved into a time when all are being tested and tried like never before. All of us have challenges and heartaches that can only be conquered through earnest prayer. Under the direction of our own Pastor Josh Schwartz, we have installed a Prayer Wall on our website—posted

Not only can you post prayer requests, readers can check a box letting the person know they have been prayed for. Folks can see that there is a community of people praying for them!

Psalm 145:18—The Lord is near to all who call on Him...

YouTube Counterfeits

All of social media can become a den of thieves, with people impersonating others and even asking for money on behalf of legitimate ministries. The problem is most severe on YouTube. But, we go to extensive work to provide a video version of our radio program so that you may see and retain much more content.

Well over 100 of our video radio programs have been stolen and are impersonating Olive Tree. How can you tell which channel is legitimate? By the number of subscribers. We have over 209,000 YouTube subscribers. The thieves, and there is more than one, have just a few hundred or thousand.

You can also view the video version on our website under “Radio”, on Rumble, on His Channel Christian TV, on our other social media platforms, and on Lightsource.

Where Will You Spend Eternity?

Olive Tree Ministries reports on news and information that is troubling and disconcerting. We often tell the inconvenient truth, and we always define issues in light of the Bible. Our times are defined by the lateness of the hour, biblically speaking. We want to ensure that our followers know where they will be spending eternity, because eternity in the wrong place is unthinkable. Heaven or hell are the options.

The Bible says all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). The Bible also says that the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:23).

If you don't know Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, the Bible says that today is the day of salvation (Acts 28). Turn from your sinful ways. "All who call on the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ will be saved (Romans 10:13).

If you have made a decision for Christ today, feel free to call our office. If you would like to pray a prayer of salvation with an Olive Tree staff person, you may also call 763-559-4444 CST.
