Who Could Have Imagined?

By Jan Markell

When 2024 dawned, now so many months ago, very few could have seen the turmoil that lay ahead. It's just as well. Only God can handle foreknowledge, and since He knows the end from the beginning, nothing catches Him by surprise. He doesn't orchestrate chaos, but He allows it so that we can have wake-up calls and keep eternity in perspective.

I want to highlight just five scenarios that are what I believe to be turning points in this present year. To a certain degree, they take one's breath away.

Death Is Celebrated

The believer loves life and wants to enjoy it forever—and will in a heavenly home. Our number one job is to find as many people as possible who can take this journey with us. We choose life, which culminates in eternal life.

At the August Democrat National Convention, very few chose life. Abortion was glorified. With a carnival-like atmosphere, people were encouraged to make themselves extinct by sacrificing children on all sorts of platforms! A mobile abortion clinic awaited in the parking lot of the DNC. A dozen baby lives were exterminated on the spot.

The lunacy was staggering with people walking around like they were a birth control pill or an IUD. Clearly, it was demonic. Who could have imagined?

Presidential Candidates Removed

The summer of 2024 saw both presidential candidates removed, although one survived an assassination attempt, and as of late summer, he is still running for president. The point is, the globalists want to install their candidate for their end-time purposes.

They are pressing on towards their one-world government and agenda. Certain people are in the way. God controls the timing of their success but they haven't figured that out. They are always in a hurry, but they can't run ahead of God's time frame.

Lauding Paganism—Announcing the Antichrist

The 2024 Olympics in Paris celebrated hedonism, paganism, and debauchery, and took an unspeakable swipe at the Lord Jesus Christ. The recent Olympics may be the greatest globalist extravaganza ever, as I further elaborate on page 8.

This year's event made believers glad that we are secure in the love

Who Could Have Imagined?

of God and His plan for the end of the age. Christians who are aware of the Olympic antics are righteously indignant at the attack God got on the global stage. Mocking the Lord's Supper set a new level of indignation towards the One who created the universe and spared humanity from sin's consequences.

Clearly, this event was announcing the Antichrist, who hasn't actually shown up yet because this isn't his time! But symbolically, he rode in on a white horse. Again, could you have anticipated such an outrage?

Israel is Being Set Up

She is being betrayed, even by once-strong supporters in Washington D.C. She is isolated and viewed as a burdensome stone (Zechariah 12:3). Almost everyone Israel trusts lets her down. She will drop her guard one more time when the Antichrist comes along to sweep her off her feet.

But the set-up is in process. When she was attacked on October 7, 2023, a natural response would have been global support. Just the opposite happened. Global antisemitism enveloped the entire world. It has been so stunning one could not have perceived this level of hate that is actually unique to the 1930s and sadly, to this modern generation.

College campuses, marches, and demonstrations globally have reignited the Nazi passion to "gas the Jews." Again, it has been breathtaking, and the panorama is set to further explode this fall and winter. Jews have been re-programmed in recent months to run and hide.

The Gog-Magog Players are Ready

Four of the five major participants to the Russian invasion of Israel, also known as Gog-Magog, are flexing their muscles today. Russia, Iran and Turkey have united in very recent years with an early foreshadowing of Ezekiel 38-39.

Sudan is engaged in a brutal civil war but has Russian soldiers throughout the African country. She could easily participate in the taking of a "spoil" in Israel as outlined in Ezekiel's passage. Israel's wealth would be a great relief to impoverished Sudan. And the brutal Sudanese regime would rather steal it than produce it.

I have just outlined five scenarios that have serious consequences and a biblical reference.

In a sense, no previous generation has observed this kind of alignment and convergence in these areas. Once again, who could have imagined? Really, no one. And there are so many more.

Time is short, friends. The world is living on borrowed time

What Happened to My Church?

By Jan Markell

I began hearing from Olive Tree supporters as long ago as 2005 concerning church dilemmas and unsound doctrinal issues in the church. Over twenty years, they only skyrocketed. Sure, there have always been apostasy and unsound teaching in the church.

The Bible warns about doctrines of demons and wolves among the flock (I Timothy 4:1; Acts 20:29). But two decades ago, things took a serious turn that many of us couldn't ignore.

Here is a short list of what started to be front-and-center in today's evangelical pulpit: creation care, Critical Race Theory, social justice, welcoming the stranger, tolerance, LGBTQ, and much more.

In 2010, a prominent evangelical pastor in the Twin Cities held a seminar instructing pastors how to cut their electric bill and how to diminish their carbon footprint. That got my attention more than anything as this evangelical leader was admired by many. His church, even today, is a prominent mega-church.

What Happened to “What Must I Do to Be Saved?”

What have the above issues to do with the gospel of salvation? To further what appeared to be a leftist agenda, sound doctrine was being marginalized, and “what must I do to be saved?” was being diminished. Reminding sinners that they were on their way to hell must be offensive.

In 2012, I heard about the Evangelical Immigration Table. The organization was funded by George Soros and was dedicated to “welcoming the stranger”, as mentioned. Christian leaders and pastors who should know better signed on. It was not the catastrophe of Biden's open border, but it was a set-up for it.

I learned that the Evangelical Environmental Network would come to my church and tell everyone how we can breathe clean air. Are you kidding?

The National Association of Evangelicals decried gun violence and encouraged pulpits to discuss the concern about America's nukes. I guess the thinking was that North Korea would dismantle their nuclear capability if America would. I wish I were making this up.

Thou Shalt Not Offend

At the same time, the eleventh commandment seemed to work its way into the church: Thou shalt not offend. Pastors taking a stand diminished.

Talking about relevant issues vanished, such as Bible prophecy and teaching support for Israel. The signs of the times only scare people many were told, and some suggested that Jesus was a Palestinian. Who knew?

Not What They Used to Be

All of this was slow and subtle, but over twenty years, the destruction in today's church is so grievous that many write this ministry and say they have given up on church. While we don't recommend that, it should be obvious that things are not what they used to be, and those disillusioned with church should not be casually dismissed.

Enter Megan Basham's book Shepherds for Sale: How Evangelical Leaders Traded the Truth for a Leftist Agenda. At a time when the church seems to be at a crossroads, Megan's book provides a meticulously-researched exposé on the infiltration of leftist ideologies into all things evangelical.

Reading it, I truly felt vindicated. I had raised all of these concerns on my radio program many years ago. Few would believe that things were so bad, plus I got a reputation I don't think I deserved. I was being a watchman on the wall trying to warn the sheep but some suggested I was a trouble maker. You can't tell the inconvenient truth.

Don't Make the Same Mistake

I was warning that the Mainline Protestant Church had declined to almost insignificance over the last one hundred years, for making this same mistake. The evangelical church prospered after 1940 as Methodists, Lutherans, and Episcopalians strayed from the gospel so they could fly the rainbow flag inside and outside their churches.

And now evangelicals want to do the same?

Shouldn't we learn from the mistakes made by denominations that had caved and not follow in their footsteps? The result is that fewer and fewer evangelicals are talking about the old rugged cross and preaching Bible exposition.

But Christ died for the Church and we cannot give up on it! A heavenly endless church service awaits us in eternity with a celestial choir and orchestra. The preaching will also be out of this world! We'll all be one denomination. We will finally be in one accord.

What on Earth is a Pastor's Huddle?

October 8-9-10

We are excited to offer special training for pastors in the area of eschatology this October. This fall we feature Dr. Mike Dodds from Calvary University in Kansas City. This is our third such event in suburban Minneapolis, co-sponsored with Mark Henry, lead pastor Revive Church, Brooklyn Park, MN and 412 Church, San Jacinto, CA.

Topic: A Biblical Evaluation of Replacement Theology. Most churches teach the error that the church has replaced Israel and now inherits all of her promises. Learn why this is a false doctrine. There is no charge for this October event. Pastors are responsible for travel and lodging. You can call us for scholarship information.

This is in conjunction with our Understanding the Times one-night conference October 10.

Contact us for videos of past Huddle teachings with Dr. Mike Powell.

For more info, visit our website: www.olivetreeviews.org, then to "Events", then to "Pastor's Huddle." Or call Pastor Josh Schwartz at 763-559-4444. You can also e-mail him at josh@olivetreeviews.org.

Beware of Counterfeits!

Please be assured that Jan Markell does not ask for money on social media—or anywhere else. Impersonators abound! A fraudster on our Instagram, then Telegram, was asking for $40,000 for a fake orphanage in Haiti. One lady bought into the lie and sent several thousand dollars! So please, do not fall for these frauds!

There are also fake YouTube channels trying to hurt this ministry.

Additionally, they are trying to scam and raise funds. On YouTube, always look for subscribers which are around 218,000 as we go into the Fall months.

Please don't access the fake channels, or any fake social media, to avoid these fraudsters! Sister ministries such as Jack Hibbs, Amir Tsarfati, and others, are constantly warning followers to avoid these outfits.

The Godless Globalist Extravaganza

By Jan Markell

Of course I refer to the 2024 Olympics in Paris, France, as I referenced in my opening article. Much has been written about them. They opened with a rider on a white horse seeming to announce the arrival of the Antichrist. The organizers, and not the athletes, seemed to cheer him on. Clearly, the brains behind the outfit are a bunch of one-worlders who see the world as a global entity. They see us hurtling towards a sinister agenda.

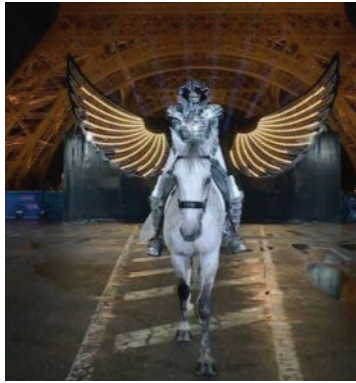

And worst of all, Olympic organizers and their creative geniuses, were Satan's useful idiots to advertise for him and to promote his kingdom.

Back in 2021, I wrote an article titled Anticipating the Antichrist and how America, particularly, is preparing for his any-day-arrival. Here we are in 2024 and the world is doing that even more enthusiastically. Not believers. We're anticipating the return of Jesus. But the secular and pagan world is cheering for the arrival of the "man of lawlessness" (2 Thess. 2).

Book Ends of Blasphemy and Debauchery

The Olympics featured book ends of mockery. Their opening and closing ceremonies took inclusion and DEI to new levels. There was a prayer to Zeus. A golden calf was featured. Fallen angels were celebrated. Drag queens mocked the Last Supper. Demons seemed to be center stage. Jesus was mocked and portrayed by a lesbian. Scene after scene reflected blasphemy and debauchery—with a small child observing it all.

Rider on white horse at 2024 Olympic opening ceremony.

We are in an all-out war. A spiritual war. Christians are fair game. Islam, Mohammed, and the Koran are not. But even non-Christians could not help but comment on the fact that rituals and ceremonies were suspiciously dark and even Satanic. It wasn't subtle. It was blatant—in your face.

Are You Seeing the Pattern?

No, it was nothing new. We saw it at just some of the following:

- In New York City in 2015 when the goddess Kali was displayed on the Empire State Building.
- At the Gotthard Base Tunnel ceremony in Switzerland in 2016.
- In the Commonwealth Games of 2022 featuring a woman riding a beast—a bull—with many bowing down before them.

- In endless Grammy Award ceremonies.
- In many Super Bowl half-time performances.

World Leaders: A Bridge Too Far

World leaders often mock anything to do with God but as it concerns the activity in Paris this summer, many were in unity, denouncing these godless, pagan actions. You didn't have to be a right-wing fundamentalist, or conspiracy theorist, to say they should have pulled the plug on whoever was the creative artist.

Satan wants to be glorified, and he wants to always remind the world that his kingdom is waiting in the wings. And he's got legions of clueless, blind people who are willing co-conspirators. They may be laughing now, but one day, they will be wailing and pleading for mercy. It will be too late.

Channeling Ancient Babylon

Darkness is loved, while light is being ardently and actively hated. It isn't enough for people to just revel in the darkness, they want to showcase it on the world's stage and celebrate it. Surely, ancient Babylon operated in like manner.

John 3:19-20 says, "And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his works should be exposed."

Woman riding a beast at Commonwealth Games 2022

Satan's Short-Lived Kingdom

This is not all bad news. It means that Satan is trying to rush his kingdom with good press releases. Here's the good news: His kingdom is a laughing stock compared to what God has planned for those who love and serve Him in the days and years ahead. "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him" (I Corinthians 2:9).

God's kingdom is out of this world. No words can describe it. Things are wrapping up. They're falling into place. Be encouraged.

Because God Intervened

By Amir Tsarfati

It could have been a different sort of week. On Sunday, a clean-shaven, very normal-looking man walked along Lehi Road in Tel Aviv. On his back was a backpack that looked like any other backpack. What was inside, though, had the potential to kill dozens, if not more. While just ten minutes away from a crowded event at a stadium, the terrorist's plot was thwarted when the explosive in his backpack prematurely blew up. He was immediately shredded to pieces, while just one bystander was moderately injured.

Hamas quickly took credit for the attempted bombing. As for the early detonation, I would also like to give credit where it is due. Thank you, God, for protecting your people. This had all the makings for another horrible massacre. You didn't allow it to happen. While we don't know why You step in at times and hold Your hand back at others, we trust You knowing that You will always do what is best. So, all credit for the premature blast goes to You, Lord.

On the flip side of the coin is what happened on October 7 of last year. I will admit to you that I am writing this paragraph on Wednesday immediately after viewing my Telegram premier of "October 7: Unfiltered". This is not my first time seeing this footage, but I once again find myself stunned at the brutality of what took place that day. How can people do this? I am angry, heartbroken, aghast, and devastated. It takes my breath away.

As I watch the Democrat National Convention in Chicago and hear the chants of "Free, Free Palestine," I want to round all those people up into an auditorium and show them the heinous violence of these "innocent" Gazans. And, yes, I know that it is not all of those who are living in Gaza. But there is a huge majority there who cheered the massacre and only wished that more Israelis had died.

The people in Chicago, and at the Olympics, and in London, and all over the world who are wittingly or unwittingly chanting for the perpetrators, are brainwashed by an antisemitic ideology that the enemy has spread across the globe. They believe the perpetrators are the victims, and the victims are the perpetrators.

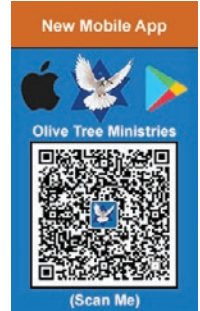

We must never forget what took place. We must never let time reverse the roles of who is the aggressor and who is simply fighting for their own peace and safety.

If you have not watched "October 7: Unfiltered" yet, I would encourage you to do so. I'll warn you, it is not easy. Some of the images you see may never leave your mind. The benefit, though, is that you will never again doubt who started this whole mess, and you'll have a complete understanding of why Israel is compelled to finish it.

Where Will You Spend Eternity?

Olive Tree Ministries reports on news and information that is troubling and disconcerting. We often tell the inconvenient truth, and we always define issues in light of the Bible. Our times are defined by the lateness of the hour, biblically speaking. We want to ensure that our followers know where they will be spending eternity, because eternity in the wrong place is unthinkable. Heaven or hell are the options.

The Bible says all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). The Bible also says that the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:23).

If you don't know Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, the Bible says that today is the day of salvation (Acts 28). Turn from your sinful ways. "All who call on the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ will be saved" (Romans 10:13).

If you have made a decision for Christ today, feel free to call our office. If you would like to pray a prayer of salvation with an Olive Tree staff person, you may also call 763-559-4444 CST.
