Catching Us Off Guard

By Jan Markell

As we head into the new year, several stories transpired at the end of 2024 that we weren't expecting. The world watched in disbelief as the regime of Bashar al-Assad, which had ruled Syria for over five decades, collapsed in a shockingly rapid and dramatic turn of events. Rebel forces, a coalition of various terror groups united in their goal to overthrow the dictator, stormed the capital, Damascus, and declared the city and country "liberated."

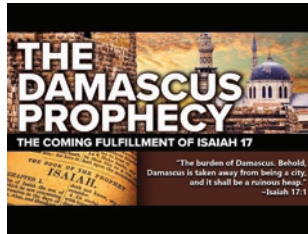

Several governments have fallen into ruin in the region in recent years including Iraq, Afghanistan, and Libya. Hamas and Hezbollah terror groups have been decimated thanks to Israel. Now Syria has fallen as well, but when evil replaces evil, only more horror follows—unless the region is being primed for stability. Unless the residents are being primed for a savior of sorts.

Here is the take away: The region needs a peace maker. The question on the mind of prophecy watchers is this: With the new Trump administration, is a new level of peace negotiations in that region on the horizon? And could this lead to the ultimate peace deal of Daniel 9:27?

If the church were to be removed in the rapture, would it not be timely for the Antichrist to arise and heal the Middle East—and then the world?

The collapse of the Syrian government and the end of Bashar al-Assad's regime is not only a geo-political turning point, but could be a moment of profound prophetic significance in light of Isaiah 17.

The passage in Isaiah describes an utter obliteration of Damascus—something that only nuclear weapons could bring about, probably in the campaign of Armageddon. But keep your eyes on this scenario in the new year. And pray without ceasing for Syria's many Christians—of all denominations. Syria's "liberators" have their sights on anything and anyone Christian. (See page 8)

For believers who examine global events through the lens of Scripture, the situation in Syria requires serious attention.

Wolves Among the Flock—Again

Late in 2024, a Daystar executive was accused of child sexual abuse and another scandal exploded onto the scene. The details are horrific and we will spare you from them, but Christians, once again, shamed the name of Jesus Christ and further tarnished Christian media.

The network features a few sound ministries that provide moments of escape from the endless hours of heresy, prosperity teachers, hucksters, and fraudsters. When the root of such calamities is the love of money and earthly pleasure, mankind can sink to new lows as evidenced in the details of this story.

But ultimately, more wolves among the flock were exposed. We haven't seen the end of this yet. It would be good if Christians turned off these outfits and opened their Bibles instead.

Strange Signs in the Heavens

I'm referring to the citing of mysterious drones all over America in late 2024! How bizarre. The Biden spokesmen played dumb—nothing new for them. What could potentially be more evil than eyes in the sky watching our every move? And, over some sensitive areas!

One compelling theory gaining traction and spreading rapidly across the web involves the use of these drones as sophisticated nuclear radiation detectors. Aerospace expert John Ferguson, founder of Saxon Aerospace, suggests the drones' flight patterns and nighttime operations could indicate missions to detect gamma radiation or other hazardous materials.

Senior Biden administration officials, including representatives from the FBI, the Federal Aviation Administration, the National Security Council, the Department of Homeland Security, and the Department of Defense all wanted to play this down! Even though they're peering into your attic window and back yard!

Conclusion: Government thinks we are stupid sheeple who fall for anything, and that is why Americans said "enough" last election day and chose to change the channel!

The Jeremiah of Our Time Passes

That is the title Time Magazine gave author and prophecy scholar Hal Lindsey, who passed away November 25. We weren't expecting it, but Hal was 95 years old. His classic book, The Late-Great Planet Earth, sold 35 million copies and strongly influenced so many, including this author.

Once Hal opened the door for

end-time discussion, two-dozen writers followed him, including Chuck Missler, Tim LaHaye, Dave Hunt, Ron Rhodes, and many more. Publishers were eager to help readers understand how the last days played out due to the success of Lindsey's first book.

Olive Tree Ministries brought Lindsey to the Twin Cities in 2004 and 2005. He was a bit eccentric but many of us are more than thankful that he impacted our lives.

None of these stories were anticipated in 2024. I can't imagine the surprises that are coming in 2025!

Understanding the Times: Making Sense of the Chaos Leading to Earth's Final Days A Wake-Up Call as We Navigate the End Times

Published by Harvest House

In a world descending deeper into uncertainty and darkness, concern about what the future holds continues to grow. How does Bible prophecy equip us to face the coming chaos with readiness and hope?

Understanding the Times examines what Scripture makes known about the last days and what that means for you today. Sharing insights from her years of watching the Bible's predictions about a final generation fall into place, Jan Markell helps you discern the signs of the end times as stated in the Bible.

You can rest in the assurance that in spite of perilous times, God's end-time calendar is unfolding exactly as He planned.

Is the Church Anointed to Reign?

By Jan Markell

The short answer is no, but let me state the problem and explain my answer.

Understand that I am thankful Donald J. Trump was elected our next U.S. President. I think he is good for the gospel, and that is just a huge factor as we wind down the Church Age. Too many on the Left are clearly enemies of the gospel.

But his election produced the following headline I caught: Trump Win Brings Era of Church 'Anointed to Reign'. In a statement by Tim Sheets, brother of Dutch Sheets, in early December. It represents the false teaching of Kingdom Now or Dominion Theology, often promoted in the New Apostolic Reformation (NAR).

The church is not appointed or anointed to reign. Jesus Christ is in his thousand-year Millennial reign on earth.

Sheets said on the Elijah List that God told him that it's time for a newly confident ekklesia—a term dominionists use to refer to the church as a governing body on Earth—to exercise a higher level of authority. He said the church now has a “prevailing anointing” and is “overwhelming hell’s effort on Earth.”

NAR leaders teach that modern-day apostles and prophets, and their Christian followers are meant to take dominion over governments and other institutions of cultural influence to speed the day when a triumphant church will rule and reign with a returning Christ.

One of the fastest-growing false teachings in the church today is called by various names: Kingdom Now, Dominion Theology, Reconstructionism, and the Restoration Movement. It is an effort to use the church to make the world perfect for our Lord’s return.

The excellent online resource, Got Questions (GotQuestions.org), writes, “Lance Wallnau coined the term Seven Mountain Mandate and is one of its prominent teachers (within Dominionism). Wallnau adapts the missionary mandate of Jesus to His disciples to ‘go and make disciples’ of all the nations into a mandate to effect social transformation. He reasons that, since churches already have a presence in every nation in the world, we need to now concentrate on influencing the systems (the ‘mountains’) within these nations.

“The seven mountains are education, religion, family, business, arts/entertainment, and media. These seven sectors of society are thought to mold the way

Is the Church Anointed to Reign?

everyone thinks and behaves. So, to tackle societal change, these seven “mountains” must be transformed. Those who follow the seven mountain mandate speak of ‘occupying’ the mountains, ‘invading’ the culture, and ‘transforming’ or ‘taking back’ society.”

This theology is borne out of the Manifest Sons of God movement and Latter Rain movement in about 1948. It also has ties to the positive confession movement.

The number one purpose of the church is to take away the souls of men from Satan. The rest of society may be a lost cause because of the Fall in the Garden. The world is a sinking Titanic ripe for judgment, not Garden of Eden perfection. Jesus will take dominion over the cleansed earth. For men to speak of doing that before the judgment of this earth is spiritually arrogant and ignorant.

There are far too many verses in the Bible that speak of the coming apostasy in the church and not the glorification of the church! The Bible says that in the last days, the church will not give heed to sound doctrine (2 Timothy 4:3-4) and will feature far too many “doctrines of demons” (1 Timothy 4:1). There will actually be “wolves among the flock” (Acts 20:29).

That does not sound like a reigning church. That’s because the world requires a reigning Messiah serving His Millennial kingdom. Today’s self-appointed prophets and apostles who are Dominion proponents need to do a reality check.

Bible Sales Soar

Any periodical that chronicles our times is usually filled with information and stats that are a downer! And current events play into this story. They are tense today and even depressing. Still, there has been a 41% increase in Bible sale copies since 2019. Stats have increased from 9.7 million to more than 13.7 million in 2024. The overall number has increased every year since 2020.

Some publishers, including Jeff Crosby, president of the Evangelical Christian Publishers Association attribute the sales numbers upsurge to increased anxiety levels influenced by world events.

“People are experiencing anxiety themselves, or they’re worried for their children and grandchildren,” Crosby explained in an interview with The Wall Street Journal. He went on to say, “It’s related to artificial intelligence and election cycles. And all of that feeds a desire for assurance that we’re going to be OK.”

“People are leaning into the Bible,” said John Plake of the American Bible Society, in an interview with CBN. Our perilous times have driven people to the only trusted source of news, information—and hope, the Word of God!

Worth Quoting

Dr. Mark Hitchcock, Pastor and Bible teacher

In the wake of the election of President Trump, the astounding movement toward peace that we are seeing on multiple fronts is nothing short of amazing. Peace seems to be in the air.

Even as Donald Trump holds the position of president-elect, peace overtures are pouring in all over the world. The momentum for peace across our globe is not only stunning, it is prophetically significant. As the world awaits the inauguration of President Trump on January 20th, world leaders seem to be lining up to make peace.

While I do not believe that Trump is the Antichrist, I do believe that all of this movement toward peace is a preview. The Antichrist will be totally inspired, directed, and empowered by Satan. He will be the ultimate strong man who will force his agenda on the world and emerge on the global scene as a great peacemaker.

Dr. David Reagan, Founder of Lamb & Lion Ministries

The Twentieth Century church seems to have lost the desire for the Lord's return. Most professing Christians today do not pray "Maranatha!"

They do not yearn for the return of the Lord. Instead of yearning, they are yawning.

Christendom at large is caught up in apathy regarding the return of Jesus. And that is sad, for the Word says that the return of the Lord is our "Blessed Hope" (Titus 2:13). Also, we are constantly admonished in Scripture to watch for the Lord's coming and to be ready.

Think of it, Paul says that a special reward — "a crown of righteousness," will be given to any person who lives his or her life loving the appearing of the Lord. Are you a candidate for this reward? Do you have a zealous yearning in your heart for the Lord's soon return? Do you pray daily, "Maranatha!"?

Amir Tsarfati, Founder, Behold Israel

I've had many people ask me if this (Israel's incursion into Syria) is a fulfillment of Isaiah 17:1, which says that Damascus must be destroyed. It is not. Assad's regime was destroyed. Damascus is still standing.

As I mentioned earlier, the north (in Israel) is now back open for Israeli citizens to move home. Not all are ready to do so, but they can if they want.

If you had told me a few months ago that by December both Hamas and Hezbollah would be gone, I would have told you that you were dreaming. But this is what we see. Both terrorist groups are decimated to the point of being non-threats. That doesn't mean Israel will give up hunting down threats. It's just that we no longer have to worry about an invasion from the north or the south.

Israel is in a very strong place right now. Netanyahu has done what he said he would do; he has brought safety back to Israel. Many doubted him and many still do, but he has proved his mettle and will go down in history as one of the greatest Israeli leaders of all time.

Decision Magazine

In the wake of an armed takeover in Syria by an Islamic terrorist group that has toppled longtime dictator, President Bashar al-Assad, the future of the Christian minority there is fragile, religious freedom advocates say.

Several Christian relief groups have called on believers worldwide to pray for the church in Syria and for the nation amid what one ABC News reporter called an “incredibly unstable situation” with the terrorists, many with ties to al-Qaida and ISIS, moving quickly to seize power.

According to David Curry, president and CEO of Global Christian Relief, the population of Christians in Syria had plummeted from 1.5 million more than a decade ago to fewer than 300,000, as ongoing wars between Islamic factions led many to flee. Already, Curry told CBN's Faithwire news site, thousands of Christians have fled into refugee camps. Others, meanwhile, are trapped in their homes amid road closures and civil unrest.

Top Ten Bible Prophecy Stories

By Jan Markell

Here we go again—reviewing the last year as it is tied to the prophetic theme in the Bible. How do we limit the items to ten? What stories can be left out? Here are ten that I feel are essential:

1) Cheering for the Antichrist.

When Kamala Harris told a supporter who shouted, “Jesus is Lord” they should, maybe go to another rally, I was reminded that much of the world is not cheering for Jesus. As a matter of fact, they are cheering for the Antichrist. They can’t wait. Those who uttered the statement were cursed and mocked but make no mistake—it was God who was being condemned by the crowd.

2) Announcing the Antichrist.

The soon arrival of the Antichrist was pre-announced—at the Summer Olympics. He even rode on his predicted white horse. How do I know? Because of the debauchery of the entire event. God, Jesus, and Christians were denigrated. Jesus was portrayed by an obese homosexual at the Last Supper. Around the world, Christians rightfully changed the channel! But, the globalists were bold to stage this event.

3) The globalists’ heads are spinning.

They took giant leaps forward with their September Pact for the Future but were dealt a setback with the election of Donald Trump. Yuval Noah Harari called Trump’s victory a “death blow” to the new global order. He warned that Trump’s nationalism poses an existential threat to globalism. Their heads are spinning and exploding! Which is it? Nothing can stop the sprint towards Revelation 13.

4) Americans said enough is enough!

Americans watched grandmothers be threatened and jailed. They watched a death cult perform at the Democrat National Convention last Summer. They learned that kids they care about might have body parts cut off. And they said enough and turned the political landscape red in 2024. Proper warnings have been given about human political saviors, but who can blame the people? Enough!

5) Perilous times took on a new meaning.

America was spared the assassination of a presidential candidate by less than a centimeter. But hateful Leftists won’t politely fade away or go quietly into the night. Many saw the jaw-dropping event on live TV last July. It gave a whole new meaning to the predicted perilous times. God’s Hand of protection was the biggest takeaway.

6) Scripture is fulfilled literally again.

Twice, we watched Israel attacked with a massive Iranian bombardment. And twice, we watched the miracle of the Iron Dome, David's sling, and Arrow systems knock almost every projectile out of the sky! Truly, He who keeps Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps (Psalms 121:4). Seeing is believing.

7) It has become cool, fashionable, and even acceptable to hate the Jews—worldwide.

But a war on Jews is a war on civilization. First, they come for Saturday people, then Sunday people—and then, for anyone standing in their way. But who could have imagined such a global outpouring of hatred toward a people who have only been a blessing to the world?

8) The remnant got smaller.

Those who truly understand the times, those who are longing for His appearing, and those who discern the times, are shrinking in number. Despite the myriad of signs that tell us that the start of the Tribulation period is long overdue, few people are paying attention. Fewer yet are the churches that are awaiting His return. The silence is deafening.

9) The world has sympathy for the devil.

Hamas is cheered and celebrated. Do you remember the hostages? What hostages? The world's concern is for the rag-tag bunch of tunnel occupiers who have lost their humanity. They are the new barbarians, but the world has made them the new folk heroes.

10) Creation keeps groaning—more than ever.

Romans 8:22 suggests that this will happen with more intensity as we get nearer to Christ's return. We must be at the door based on images from America's southeast. Helene and Milton aren't your relatives, but they have carved an imprint on everyone's mind. And such events have intensified all around the world.

Of course, I've left off a boatload of stories that are remarkable and just plain stunning. But clearly, we are in amazing times. Record-breaking times. Times where we have to see it to believe it! We're not in Kansas anymore. That's because we're in the end times. The last days. Minutes or seconds before Christ's glorious return.

And what did you think the last days would look like?

Where Will You Spend Eternity?

Olive Tree Ministries reports on news and information that is troubling and disconcerting. We often tell the inconvenient truth, and we always define issues in light of the Bible. Our times are defined by the lateness of the hour, biblically speaking. We want to ensure that our followers know where they will be spending eternity, because eternity in the wrong place is unthinkable. Heaven or hell are the options.

The Bible says all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). The Bible also says that the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:23).

If you don't know Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, the Bible says that today is the day of salvation (Acts 28). Turn from your sinful ways. "All who call on the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ will be saved" (Romans 10:13).

If you have made a decision for Christ today, feel free to call our office. If you would like to pray a prayer of salvation with an Olive Tree staff person, you may also call 763-559-4444 CST.
