Looking Ahead- With Eyes Wide Open!

By Jan Markell

A common question in the prophecy community as to our times is, “Why are we still here?” It’s a good question. With the rapid convergence of so many last days’ signs, we should be filled with hopeful expectation of Jesus’ return. In 2026, watch the following. They are just ten prominent markers as to how late it is.

1. The continued rush to globalism. Marco Rubio gave a compelling speech back in February about the perils of becoming citizens of the world. Many listened. The globalists pushed back and continue to praise their love for one-worldism. But we can’t stop what’s coming. The Antichrist will run a one-world system and almost everything is in place. The globalist idea will be painted as the one thing that will solve the world’s problems. No more wicked regimes if the world is united! Rubio and others have brilliantly warned us, but the rush to globalism is on!

2. Watch for a greater stirring of the masses due to the increase of the spirit of the Antichrist. I lived it in the winter of 2026 here in Minneapolis as radicals rioted against ICE, and in 2020 the chaos due to the George Floyd ordeal. I’ve seen one medium-sized city reduced, in part, to ashes because of demonic lawlessness. In carnal man, if they do not get their way, laws are tossed and anarchy is celebrated. As I’ve said many times, the Antichrist won’t have to rent-a-mob. Violence will be the new global normal. I’ve watched it up close and personal. The Tribulation will set a new gold standard when it comes to violence.

3. Iran is destabilizing the world, but the ruthlessness of the Mullahs is being challenged by an American President in cooperation with Israel. Just know that Iran is not going away, nor is her evil intent. She is the prominent player in the Ezekiel 38-39 Gog-Magog War. She may be weakened and more nukes may be demolished, but she will rise from the ashes to invade Israel to seize a spoil (Ezek. 38:10-13). God will defeat Persia (Iran), Turkey, Russia and other invaders on the mountains of Israel. Also, remember that Israel must dwell “securely” (Ezek. 38:11) in the last days without bars or gates. Neutralizing Iran will help bring this about even though it is temporary.

4. Let me expound a bit on the biggest story of the last few years, and will be going forth. We need to keep alert for more anti-Semitism on the right, such as Tucker Carlson, and more global Jew-hatred. Jews admit they feel safe almost nowhere. They are fleeing to Israel, which is hardly the safest place on earth! They are even fleeing New York under Mayor Zohran Mamdani, an anti-Israel Communist and jihadist. Almost half of young Republicans surveyed see Jews as a threat to the American way of life, having been influenced by the Tucker Carlson’s and Candace Owens’. Among many on the left of all ages, the Jews and Israel are the root of all evil.

5. Watch Turkey. She is micro-managing Syria, destroying the good guys in Syria, and readying for her major role in Gog-Magog. President Erdogan is the most dangerous Middle East player and promoter of the future global Islamic Caliphate. Once he conquers Syria, he will move on to Iraq and maybe even Iran. He is underestimated and should not be! Once Iran is neutralized, Erdogan may become the most prominent Mid-East leader next to Netanyahu.

*The heart is deceitful above all things,
and desperately wicked: who can know it?*

Jeremiah 17:9

6. We are all mindful of the verse in the Bible, that the “heart is deceitful and desperately wicked” (Jer. 17:9). Nothing should surprise us, yet the details of the Jeffrey Epstein case defy imagination. We should prepare for more shock. Our days are compared to those of Noah’s day. Aberration, violence, wickedness, love growing cold, and betrayal, are common similarities.

What did you think the last days would look like? Expect this to accelerate in the coming months and years. And, the celebration of the unnatural with the trans agenda. Folks are being jailed for “transphobia” or for praying outside abortion factories. The 2026 Super Bowl half-time program with the bizarre “Bad Bunny” performance sums up the debauchery of our times, and the love of that kind of evil.

7. Watch for A.I. to make stunning progress! See story on page 6. We will soon have the church of A.I. It will be made god-like and will be the Antichrist’s chief tool. A new A.I. religion is being formed. Just like the Nazis needed the IBM punch card system, the Antichrist will need Artificial Intelligence to run his twisted empire. But we are summoning demons when it comes to Artificial Intelligence. We are playing with fire. Along with the re-birth, of Israel, Artificial Intelligence is truly the second greatest end-time accelerant.

8. In 2025 a stunning new development took place when President Trump announced his Board of Peace. I have written about it extensively (see page 15). The Bible describes a future period in which authority is concentrated not solely in traditional kingdoms, but in a limited number of powerful figures who operate beyond national boundaries. And that is why I am paying close attention to President Trump’s Board of Peace. As I’ve previously stated, most are kings without kingdoms. Keep a close eye on this in 2026.

9. The rise of Islam in America is staggering. I live among 100,000 Somalis and have written that I live in Mogadishu on the Mississippi, Minneapolis, MN. A hardened Muslim is Mayor of America’s largest city, Zohran Mamdani. Islam is targeting Texas almost as their U.S. caliphate. Cities like Dearborn, MI are re-named Dearbornistan. This is serious! The mind of the true Islamist makes us all unsafe, including our churches that are a target.

10. The most underrated story of the 21st century is the destruction of Christian communities around the world. Communism and Islam are the perpetrators. This will accelerate in 2026. Thanks to President Trump, American troops are on the ground in Nigeria to prevent a genocide there. But that’s just one of twenty hot spots.

These are ten scenarios to watch in 2026 as we await His return. They are all a part of the overall “convergence” of signs that we are running out of time, and that a trumpet and a shout are forthcoming! The King is coming. Most of the world, and the church, has eyes wide shut. We are thankful that our readers have eyes wide open!

Welcome to the Brave New World:

Who Needs God in an Age of Artificial Intelligence?

By Jan Markell

Most people have no idea of what's coming. In fact, of what is here now. Very few people comprehend the level of mischief and evil that surrounds what is called artificial intelligence (A.I.). It is paving the way for a robot Messiah.

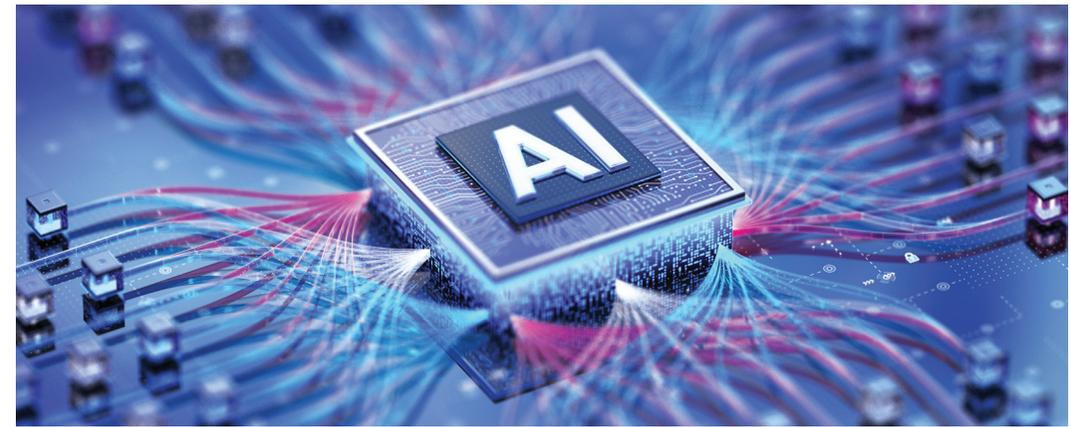

I wrote an article several years ago about this, but when talking about advancing technology, just a few years is a lifetime. Back in 2018, I began to read that people would even form a church that worshiped an A.I. god.

A Billion Times Smarter Than Humans? Really?

I was learning that he who created and mastered A.I. would rule the world. That sounds very Antichrist-esque. Imagine such evil in the hands of ultimate evil? What a convenient tool to run the Antichrist's last days' empire.

I began watching some online videos of A.I. robots who look human and who "think." They answer questions and seem to process real thoughts. By now, we have all learned of the robot Sophia. This A.I.-driven monster is attractive, clothed, looks you in the eye, and answers your questions.

She can be your friend, companion, problem solver, and perhaps someday, your spouse. At the very least, she will run your errands and put away your groceries. In the wrong hands, she will be dangerous.

Developers say these A.I. robots will solve all of society's problems. These men also say that they believe that it is possible for artificial intelligence to be a billion times smarter than humans. Try to process that. To be honest, I am puzzled why God would even allow that, and it may be one reason He nearly destroys the earth before His Second Coming.

Are We Summoning Demons?

Many are warning that with A.I., we are playing with fire and that in the end, machines will win! Others say we are summoning up demons. Most recently, I am learning that people are going to talk to the dead through A.I. "griefbots." It just doesn't get any stranger.

A new report reveals how artificial intelligence programs will advise terrorists how to attack a sports venue, buy nuclear material on the dark web, buy spyware, bombs, and more. Jihadists will use A.I. to plan attacks and map targets. Who could have envisioned this back on 9/11? We've come a long way, sadly. Talk about the abuse of power.

A.I. Is Actively Watching and Listening

Maybe this new religion isn't the promise of paradise after all. Some promoting A.I. are evangelists, and some of them offer a new Promised Land. But some of the very movers and shakers of the artificial intelligence industry are sounding serious warnings.

And this is not the wave of the future today, as it is all being employed now! Outfits like Google have every bit of information on us they need. They have all our vitals and can weaponize such information in this age of A.I. Google admits that they want to be like the mind of God and suggests they will be "godlike" as they grab bundles of data from us. It is watching us and listening to us.

There is a "home invasion" going on by the world of technology and A.I. If you think you have any privacy, think again. To say we are being monitored is not sensationalism. It is not kooky conspiracy language. Don't brush this off as silliness. Welcome to the brave new world.

Who Needs God in an Age of Artificial Intelligence?

Young people are particularly drawn to Artificial Intelligence. Some of them will tell you that they can get an answer more quickly from a search engine or Alexa than they can get from God. Who needs God in an age of Artificial Intelligence? A.I. is almost all-knowing. And these technologies will tell you what you want to hear in technicolor, 3-D, and in an instant.

Very likely, A.I. will manage the Antichrist agenda, such as all buying and selling. Mankind will almost become a useful idiot of this kind of last days' technology. People will think God has been outsmarted. Deception will rule. All of this gives new meaning to the term "big brother."

Younger people are cheering for these technological advancements. They are falling into a terrible trap if they do not have a biblical worldview. They are welcoming evil with open arms. Once they figure this out, it will be too late.

A.I. Is Fearfully Fraudulent

But remember, A.I. cannot speak anything into existence or give anyone eternal life. It cannot give anyone comfort, guidance, or offer anyone peace or hope. It cannot still the wind or calm the sea. It is more like Frankenstein than like God. It is trying to be like God but will fall far short! We are fearfully and wonderfully made. A.I. is fearfully fraudulent.

Another End Times Accelerant

There is no way a computer can do anything but copy what it has been taught, and there is something about the human spirit that can never be created by a machine. Yet, I agree with Dr. Mark Hitchcock, who says that Artificial Intelligence is a major "end times accelerant."

Like the re-birth of Israel, it is a profound end-time marker. It would behoove every Christian to better understand it and its last day's role. We can't stop this train. We can pray for the rapture of believers, which will remove us from this Alice in Wonderland, bizarre, invasive world.

Stay ahead of the game and become informed. Events of the Tribulation are casting a shadow today. The shout and the trumpet are close. He is coming soon!

When the Wisdom of the Creator Rules!

God sits in the Heavens and laughs at these people (Psalm 2). He has the final say. He has the last word! The Bible says God will crush the agenda of the Antichrist and rule the world from Jerusalem for one thousand years. During that time, there will be no need for Artificial Intelligence. We will have the wisdom of the creator of the universe in charge.

About Jan Markell

Jan Markell came to faith in the Jewish Messiah under evangelist Dr. Hyman Appleman at age 11. She has authored 10 books with Tyndale, Harvest House, Baker Books, and Bethany House. She began Understanding the Times Radio in 2000, which grew to 1,000 stations. The ministry discontinued its radio outreach in the winter of 2026. Jan hosted the largest prophecy conference in the world until 2019. Lamb & Lion Ministries declared her one of the leading Christian voices in America in 2017.

A New Direction!

Jean DeJong and Jill Martin Rische

L'Chaim Israel! - To Life Israel!

In February, we announced that the new emphasis of Olive Tree Ministries would be Israel. We introduced our outreach titled L'Chaim Israel! (To Life Israel!). Chaim means a double blessing, referring to two lives: our life on earth, and the hope of eternal life. We're hoping to make the lives of those in Israel better today and that one day soon, many more in Israel will believe in the Messiah Yeshua.

We've been on the ground for two years in Israel, working in co-operation with Rock Harbor Church's Bless Israel outreach, headed by Pastor Brandon Holthaus. Our own Jill Martin Rische and Jean DeJong are active in this outreach in Israel.

The response from the Jewish people has been powerful, with many new doors opening for ministry. Everywhere we go, we tell them you love them and you're praying for them. We share with them that this support, during these difficult times, comes from our Olive Tree family.

This will be our third year in Israel, boldly sharing who we are and who we worship, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and His Son, Yeshua. Our focus is material, practical, financial, and spiritual support of God's land and people.

We spend Shabbat with believers and non-believers and encourage them; we help soldiers and their families with safety equipment and daily needs; we provide food, clothing and bomb shelters for children, loving them in practical and eternal ways that include providing Bibles, counseling, and street ministry. And remember, Israel is the key to the last days which has been our focus for decades and will continue. We trust you join us prayerfully and financially.

You can donate to this outreach at our website: www.olivetreeviews.org. Look for the drop-down box titled "Israel Project" (which is the same as L'Chaim Israel!), call, or drop us a check in the mail specifying our Israel outreach.

We caution you about organizations who advertise prominently promising boxes of food for starving Jews around the world. They withhold the gospel which we would never do. Meeting practical needs is fine, but withholding the good news of eternal life is not acceptable to us. We believe you can do both.

Having discontinued radio outreach February 1, 2026, our hope and prayer is that God will bless the work He has called us to do for Israel, "the apple of God's eye." (Zechariah 2:8) We hope this effort will counter the rabid antisemitism and blatant Jew-hatred that now has spread around the world in an attempt to globalize the intifada.

Won't you join us in this outreach as we await His return?

Join the Prophecy Roundtable

The Roundtable has met several times a year online for four years, hosted by Amir Tsarfati of Behold Israel. Co-hosts are Barry Stagner, Jan Markell, and Mike Golay. The team looks at all angles of Bible prophecy by way of discussion and Q & A. Get on the E-newsletter list of Behold Israel at www.beholdisrael.org for upcoming announcements! Or, subscribe to their YouTube Channel. We are in amazing times as we watch the signs of the times.

Watching Tucker Carlson Juggle a Live Grenade.

By Jill Martin Rische

Former Fox host, Tucker Carlson, once again found himself at the center of a media firestorm after sitting down for a cozy, unhurried chat with Nick Fuentes, a well-known antisemite, white nationalist, and Holocaust denier.

The New York Times noted that the interview set off a civil war inside Conservatism Inc., but Carlson seemed baffled that anyone was upset. After all, he wasn't endorsing Fuentes, he was just handing him a microphone and a warm cup of fairness.

Apparently, the distinction is very important in Tucker-land.

Everyone's Going to Call Me a Nazi—It's So Unfair to My Ratings

Carlson opened the interview by complaining that people would call him a Nazi sympathizer for showcasing Fuentes, but he went ahead with the interview anyway. It was the rhetorical equivalent of saying, "People might be mad I'm juggling lit dynamite... oh well, welcome to the show!"

Tucker's defense is always the same: he's just asking questions. Questions like:

Tucker Carlson

- "Why is everyone so hysterical about white nationalism?"
- "What if the real problem is the 'Judeo' in 'Judeo-Christian'?"

The Rebranding of
"Judeo-Christian",
Now With 100%
Less Judeo

Carlson recently discovered that the phrase "Judeo-Christian" offends him, not because it erases Jews but because it includes them. In his newer scripts, the Old Testament is recast as primitive and tribal, while the New Testament is portrayed as the sole source of civilization and human dignity. It would be interesting to hear where the 10 Commandments fit into Tucker's world.

In the 20th century, "Judeo-Christian" was coined to fight antisemitism and build a shared moral foundation. Tucker's contribution to this tradition was to walk into the room 80 years later and say, "Actually, what if we undid that?"

He doesn't say Jews are the problem. He just edits them from the story and chats with people who do say it.

I Don't Endorse Him, I Just Give Him a Platform

Carlson's line about Fuentes is that he's not going away and must therefore be engaged. It's a bold new theory of moral responsibility. If something exists, and won't leave on its own, you're obligated to invite it on your show and let it talk for an hour.

By this logic, mold and termites are all just "voices in the discourse" waiting for their turn on the Tucker Carlson Network, each essentially worthless. Somehow, Carlson thinks this is a worthwhile endeavor, a "fair" way to handle disgusting things. But even the controversial Dietrich Bonhoeffer famously wrote, "Silence in the face of evil is itself evil: God will not hold us guiltless. Not to speak is to speak. Not to act is to act." In the interview, Tucker's tone toward Fuentes sits somewhere between indulgent older cousin and man trying to juggle a live grenade. He steps into the realm of the treacherous and seems surprised when people question his judgment.

When the backlash came, Carlson found defenders in familiar places. The President of the Heritage Foundation, Kevin Roberts, recorded a video backing him up and scolding critics as a "venomous coalition," before later explaining that an aide wrote the script.

This is the new standard in right-wing crisis PR: Say something inflammatory and blame it on a staffer.

Tucker's New Christianity

In his evolving monologues, Carlson pitches a version of Christian nationalism where Christian identity must be politically ascendant and Jews are, at best, awkward guests at the reception. Fuentes, for his part, openly advocates Catholic theocracy and rants about a “Jewish-occupied government.”

Tucker doesn't repeat those lines himself. He just smiles thoughtfully while the guest says the quiet part out loud.

Everyone Else Sees Fire- Tucker Sees Content

Meanwhile, the broader conservative world is fracturing over all this, as mainstream figures try to draw a line between “conservative” and “let's forget the Nuremberg archives.” Carlson's whole shtick boils down to this: Invite an extremist on and soften the edges, then pretend the outrage, not the extremism, is the story.

Anyone familiar with the Bible can see at a glance that the Jews play a central role in it. The promises of God were made to Abraham. The church comes along later and is ‘grafted in’ but never intended to replace Israel. A grafted tree is made up of two trees, two distinct trees in one.

In the botanical world, a grafted tree cannot produce the right kind of fruit without both trees. Regular maintenance must be done to preserve the integrity of the grafted tree. So, there is no dismissing the value of both trees. This is science and biblical truth.

So, Carlson's guest is not just a Holocaust denier, he rejects the plain truth of the Bible.

To many biblically-rooted conservatives, the problem isn't subtle. You cannot platform a Holocaust denier, belittle the “Judeo” in “Judeo-Christian,” wrap it all up in talk of “Christian” civilization, and still claim neutrality.

Tucker is playing with very old matches in a very dry room.

Kings Without Kingdoms:

Is the Board of Peace a Part of Bible Prophecy?

By Jan Markell

The Bible describes a future period in which authority is concentrated not solely in traditional kingdoms, but in a limited number of powerful figures who operate beyond national boundaries. And that is why I am paying close attention to President Trump's Board of Peace.

Here are some fast facts:

- 1) President Trump will serve as chairman and wield considerable overall control. It will help resolve conflicts globally. He has the sole authority to invite new members and appoint a successor.
- 2) Global peace seems to be their goal, though they will participate in other global duties as well. The immediate focus of the Board of Peace will be Gaza, though there was no word about Gaza in the charter.
- 3) A lot of Godless people seem to be in charge, such as Steve Witkoff, Jared Kushner, Tony Blair, and almost 60 more movers and shakers. Most have a worldly view of the world and of “peace”.

4) Though originally announced as the international body created to oversee the rebuilding and initial governance of Gaza, the document curiously never mentions Gaza. Why not? Does President Trump envision this as the beginnings of an alternative or replacement to the United Nations? At face value, that sounds like a great idea!

5) The price tag for a nation-state being a member is $1 billion. That eliminates some third world countries and maybe that is good. Somalia, Afghanistan, and Madagascar will have to watch from afar. They may become benefactors of the Board of Peace if it becomes like the U.N.

6) Most European countries, including the United Kingdom, France and Germany, have declined a position on the board, leading to significant dominance of the Middle Eastern Arab states on the Board of Peace.

7) The Board of Peace will be run by Artificial Intelligence and is clearly preparing the Mark of the Beast system. It seems to be setting up the Antichrist end-time system. This does not mean charter members such as Trump and the others forming this organization are a part of the Antichrist system today, though some could be.

8) The newly established Board of Peace is organized into a tiered hierarchy of multiple levels of oversight committees.

9) Russia has been invited. How can a country engaged in a brutal war be a part of a Board of Peace? This seems to reveal a significant disconnect!

10) The Pope has been invited, too. An end-time establishment is surely not complete without participation from the Vatican! The world awaits a spiritual leader!

11) Israel is invited but is outraged to be on a platform with the likes of Qatar and Turkey.

12) The Board of Peace seeks to promote stability, restore dependable and lawful governance, and secure enduring peace in areas affected or threatened by conflict. Again we see the similarities to the United Nations.

13) Questionable outfits such as the World Economic Forum may participate. These people aren't elected and plenty are shady characters. It has been suggested that many participants are kings without kingdoms.

14) The online periodical Prophecy News Watch says it best: "A peace guaranteed by outsiders. Power consolidated in elite hands. Decisions about Israel made far from Jerusalem. A world growing comfortable with governance by committee rather than covenant."

15) Since organizers claim it will solve all the world's problems, it is Tribulation-esque and could be preparing the way for a global leader. That is likely not President Trump, but keep your eyes on Jared Kushner who is truly one of the world's most powerful unelected leaders.

Again, quoting Prophecy News Watch, "Daniel speaks of rulers who arise suddenly, wield influence disproportionate to their origins, and play decisive roles in confirming agreements that directly impact Israel. Revelation later describes ten kings who rule briefly, not over historic empires, but through shared authority, leaders who ultimately 'give their power' to one central figure."

The Board of Peace will undoubtedly shut out the Prince of Peace and thus will fail. Additionally, the Bible says, "While people are saying, 'There is peace and security,' then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape." (1 Thess. 5:3).

Keep your eye on this outfit, however, as it is clearly setting the stage.

And the government will rest on His shoulders;
And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor,
The Mighty God, Eternal Father, The Prince of Peace"
(Isaiah 9:6).

America On Alert: Iran's Sleeper Cells and the Rising Lone-Wolf Threat!

The death of Ali Khamenei March 1 may mark the end of one man's rule- but it could ignite a far more unpredictable and dangerous phase of conflict. Security analysts and intelligence officials are sounding alarms that Tehran's retaliation may not come only through missiles or proxies abroad, but through something far harder to detect and stop: sleeper cells and radicalized lone actors already living in Western societies.

Former Israeli intelligence chief Yossi Kuperwasser, now affiliated with the Jerusalem Institute for Strategy and Security, warned that dormant operatives linked to Tehran exist “around the globe” and could be activated to strike targets tied to U.S. or allied interests. Having led research for the Israel Defense Forces intelligence division, Kuperwasser's assessment is not speculation from the sidelines--it reflects decades of watching how state sponsors of terrorism behave after losing key leaders.

Designed Precisely for Moments Like This

His message is blunt: sleeper networks are designed precisely for moments like this. They wait silently for years, blending into communities, building ordinary lives, and then, when triggered, they act. The activation signal could be direct orders, coded online messages, or instructions relayed through intermediaries already embedded in Western countries. According to Julian Richards of the University of Buckingham, such cells can be “virtually impossible to spot” until they move.

Retaliatory attacks inside Western nations “cannot be ruled out.” That is diplomatic language for a deeply unsettling reality: Western intelligence agencies are bracing for impact.

The Border Question No One Wants to Address

If sleeper operatives already exist in the West, how did they get there? Critics argue that years of porous migration controls in parts of Europe and North America have increased vulnerability to infiltration. While most migrants seek safety or opportunity, hostile regimes need only a handful of determined operatives to exploit gaps. Intelligence services have repeatedly warned that adversarial states study immigration systems carefully, looking for bureaucratic blind spots.

The United States, home to millions of immigrants from across the world - including roughly 2.5 million Shiite Muslims - faces a delicate balancing act: maintaining openness while preventing exploitation. The risk is not the community itself; it is the possibility that a tiny fraction could be coerced, recruited, or radicalized.

Two Iranian expatriates in London previously described being pressured during visits back to Iran to perform tasks for the regime, sometimes after authorities temporarily confiscated passports. Such tactics illustrate how intelligence recruitment can occur quietly and coercively.
